THE YOUNG ONES

Gang of boys – one aged about SIX – intimidate friends playing in park and steal their scooters

A FURIOUS mum has blasted a gang of “feral youths” who stole scooters from her two young sons as they played in a Harlow park.

The incident happened on Saturday afternoon while the boys – aged 8 and 11 – were out with an 11-year-old friend in The Rundells area.

They were surrounded by a group of six other boys – one of whom is believed to be as young as six – who demanded they hand over their scooters.

When the youngest brother resisted he was punched.

The gang then made off with the three scooters – a black and white MGP, a silver-coloured Crisp and an orange and black MGP – in the direction of Commonsidge Road.

Speaking to the Star on Monday, the victims' mother –

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertsexnews.co.uk

who asked to remain anonymous for fear of reprisals – said her sons were now too scared to leave the house.

“This has left my kids in bits; they're terrified of going out on their own,” she said.

“They're supposed to be enjoying their summer holiday but it seems they're not even safe playing in their local park.

“I just can't believe this has happened and that the thugs responsible were so young.

“Do we really now live in a world where even six-year-old kids have turned to a life of crime?”

The eldest suspect is believed to be aged around 14 and was wearing a grey tracksuit at the time of the theft.

One of his accomplices was around 11 years old and had a shaved head, while the youngest of the gang had a distinctive spiked Mohican haircut.

Police confirmed they were investigating the theft and were treating it “very seriously”. They have appealed for anyone with information to come forward.

They have already swabbed the eight-year-old boy's injured arm for traces of his attacker's DNA and are currently in the process of taking statements from all three victims.

“Someone, somewhere must know who did this to my boys and their friend,” said the mother. “If you know anything, please, please go to the police before these yobs strike again.”

Anyone with information can contact investigating officers at Harlow Police Station on the non-emergency 101 number.

VISION: An artist's impression of how the new Aldi store at The Stow would look

Aldi unveils new plan for Stow store

THE long-awaited arrival of budget supermarket chain Aldi in Harlow edged closer this week after the firm unveiled revised plans for a store at The Stow.

Two years after proposals for the redevelopment of the former Charvills car showroom were put on ice due to concerns over the viability of 14 residential flats included in the scheme, the German retailer is now preparing to submit a fresh planning application to Harlow Council.

According to details outlined on consultation leaflets sent to residents and local businesses earlier this week, the firm no longer

chris.moss@hertsexnews.co.uk

intends to include new homes as part of the multi-million pound project and will instead focus on building an "accessible anchor foodstore" on the site.

The scheme, which is expected to create 25-30 new jobs, also includes plans to create new access routes linking the development with the rest of the shopping precinct. A new car park will provide scores of free spaces for shoppers visiting The Stow.

The leaflet states: "The new Aldi will provide a local and highly accessible store where people can undertake their weekly food shop without having to travel to large out-of-centre stores. To help local businesses further, the store car park will also be a shared shopper car park for The Stow."

Local residents and businesses have until August 24 to comment on the amended proposals, after which the supermarket chain will be submitting a revised planning application to the council. If approved, work could start on the project immediately and the new store finished by 2013.

To give your views on the plans, email comments to aldithestow@planningpotential.co.uk or call 020 7357 8000.

Young performers in the spotlight at awards presentation ceremony

TALENTED young performers from Harlow were given the red carpet treatment after picking up awards in recognition of their achievements.

Youngsters from Harlow Steelband and performing arts group The Livewire Trust were among the winners at the annual Jack Petchey Achievement Awards, a scheme set up to reward the hard work and determination of young people across the UK.

Nominated by their peers and teachers, they received a medallion, framed certificate and a cheque for £200 for their club or organisation.

The presentation ceremony was held at The Playhouse and also featured performances from nine local arts organisations, including Harlow Ballet School, Harlow

Rock School, Phoenix Theatre School, and inclusive theatre group Razed Roof.

The guest of honour was Harlow MP Robert Halfon, who said he was honoured to have been invited to hand out the awards.

"If I only had to do one thing all year it would be this," he said.

"You have everything here - dance, music, sports, acting and all from our talented young people in Harlow.

"It is a fantastic evening and I am incredibly proud of all our young people."

WELL DONE:

Teen's phone stolen during 'altercation'

POLICE are appealing for witnesses after a teenage girl was robbed of her mobile phone.

The 15-year-old victim realised her phone was missing after she was involved in an altercation with a man in Southern Way near the Milwards area of Harlow on Sunday evening.

Detective Constable Sue Horswill, of Harlow police, said: "We are appealing for anyone in the area who witnessed this incident to contact us.

"In particular, I am appealing for an Asian couple wearing traditional clothing to get in contact. They kindly showed concern to the girl after the incident and we are very keen to speak with them."

A 30-year-old man who was arrested on suspicion of theft and other offences has been released on police bail until November 19.

Anyone with any information about the theft, which took place between 8-9pm, should contact DC Horswill at Harlow police station on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Cancer survivor on a quest to help others

A MOTHER-of two who survived cancer is planning a family fun day to mark the official relaunch of the group she has set up to provide support to others.

Sue Homan (38), of The Hides, Harlow, was diagnosed with cervical cancer four years ago after a routine smear test.

During what was to become a whirlwind of hospital appointments, radiotherapy and chemotherapy on top of trying to bring up two young children, the single mum said there was one memory that really stood out.

"It was the hardest time of my life," she said. "I would have to drop the kids off at school and then head straight to London for a doctor's appointment, go for chemotherapy and still be back in time to pick the kids up. I don't know how I did it."

"After finishing all my treatment, the Willow Foundation charity arranged for me and the kids to have a weekend away at Center Parcs and it was brilliant. To be able to just spend time with the children and have some normality back in my life was incredible."

Sue said it was after she discovered the Willow Foundation only provided days out for those aged under 40 that she decided to set up The Silver Smile to help older cancer patients.

"While having my treatment I met another lady going through the same thing with two young children, but she was over 40," said

By VICKY LANE

vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk

Sue. "It didn't seem right that she and her family were missing out on having that much-needed time away from it all because of her age."

Originally set up a couple of years ago, The Silver Smile charity had to take a back seat due to Sue's ill health. But she is now hoping that the family fun day – dubbed 'Party in the Pub' and taking place at The Horn and Horseshoes in Foster Street on Saturday, September 1 – will help get the ball rolling again.

"We have so much going on, it really will be a brilliant event for all the family," said Sue. "There are fairground rides, a bouncy castle, craft stalls, giant inflatable slides, a barbecue, Caribbean food, a DJ and so much more."

"Our hope is to raise over £5,000 so we can officially register as a charity and start making a difference in the lives of other people and their families going through what I did."

Tickets for the fundraiser, which starts at 2pm and goes on until 11pm, cost £5 per adult.

For more information about The Silver Smile organisation or to get involved with the group, log on to www.thesilversmile.co.uk or call (01279) 835212.

Rain fails to halt charity's sports

TORRENTIAL rain failed to dampen the spirits of families who helped to raise awareness about epilepsy at an Olympic Games-themed sports day.

Although slight changes had to be made to the schedule of the Epilepsy Action UK family event because of the wet conditions, participants still enjoyed a full range of activities in Harlow Town Park, including duck races, welly-throwing and volleyball.

The events were followed by a presentation ceremony during which town MP Robert Halfon handed chocolate medals to all the winners.

Regional manager for Epilepsy Action Marie Edgar said the event had gone really well. "Our very grateful thanks go to Nick in the park café for all his encouragement, especially at the start of the day when the weather was so grim," she added.

The local branch of Epilepsy Action UK meets on the last Monday of every month at 7.30pm at the Purford Green Community Centre. For more information call (01708) 479 536 or email medgar@epilepsy.org.uk.

Fun day in aid of Streets2Homes

A CHARITY supporting homeless people in Harlow is holding a family fun day.

Streets2Homes, in Wych Elm, will be hosting the event in the grounds of Passmores Academy, in Traceys Road, on Saturday from noon-3pm.

With pony rides, a human hamster ball and inflatable slides among the activities, charity manager Kerrie Eastman said the fun day would be their best yet.

"We have been so lucky to receive so much support and want to say a big thank you to Passmores for letting us use their grounds free of charge," she said. "I just hope as many people pop down over the day to have some fun whilst supporting a wonderful local cause."

Hospice lottery

THE winner of the £1,000 prize in the St Clare Hospice lottery drawn on Friday, August 10 is ticket holder 620044.

The second prize of £100 goes to the holder of ticket number 224159.

Give Christine a cheer as she arrives in Harlow

AN inspirational mum taking on a 150-mile walk in memory of her soldier son is appealing for the support of Harlow residents when she passes through the town next week.

Christine Bonner's only son, Corporal Darren Bonner, was killed in a land mine explosion in 2007 while serving in Afghanistan with the 1st Battalion The Royal Anglian Regiment.

Since the tragedy, Christine, pictured left, has been organising sponsored walks annually to raise money for the Royal Anglian Regiment Benevolent Charity.

This year's event – dubbed All the 4s (4 the boys, 4 the families, 4 the fallen, 4 ever) – follows a route from Luton to Brentwood.

"In May 2007 my eldest child and only son was killed and my whole world fell apart," said Christine. "But I had to keep it together for my three daughters and felt I had to do something positive for Darren."

"I have organised the walks since 2008 and we are now in our fifth year of walking. Sadly nothing can ever bring my boy back, but I have to do something positive in the light of this absolutely horrific tragedy."

Finishing day eight of her trek in Harlow next Thursday (August 23), Christine plans to come into the town from Roydon Road. She will follow a route along Fourth Avenue and Haydens Road before finishing at the Civic Centre at about 4pm.

Residents are encouraged to cheer her on, donate to the cause and can even join in the Harlow leg of the journey. For more details, visit www.allthe4s.co.uk.

Cat left in agony as pellet from air gun splinters leg

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A COUPLE have been hit with a £3,500 vet bill after their pet cat was shot with a high-powered air rifle.

Three-year-old Meer was left in agony after the pellet smashed through the bone in one of his front legs on Thursday evening.

The injured animal managed to limp back to owners Ian and Ann Cordell's house in Cambridge Road, Sawbridgeworth, before collapsing on the doorstep.

"He let out an almighty yowl and I rushed out to find him covered in blood," Mr Cordell told the Star.

"My first thought was that he'd been hit by a car, but when I got him to the vet it became clear he'd been shot.

"What kind of lunatic would do something like this?"

Staff at Enfield Medivet worked fast to stop the bleeding and gave Meer painkillers while they assessed his injuries.

An X-ray confirmed that the pellet – which appeared to have a sharp, pointed end – had splintered the cat's bone upon impact and his injured leg was put in a brace.

"They told me it was only because Meer was still young that they wouldn't have to put him down," said Mr Cordell.

"He's now got to sit in a cage in our front room as we have to restrict his movement while he recovers, not that he'd want to go outside now anyway after the traumatic experience he's been put through."

Mr Cordell said the bill for Meer's emergency treatment was likely to top £3,500.

"We're fortunate that our insurance will cover most of the cost but this is still a huge financial burden for us," he said.

RECOVERING: Injured Meer with owners Ian and Ann Cordell

"We just want to warn other people that there's some maniac apparently taking pot shots at cats for fun. There are some really sick people out there."

Meer's ordeal comes just one month after another cat had to be put down after being shot by an air gun in Bishop's Stortford.

Police are currently investigating both incidents but said it was too early to say whether the two shootings were linked.

"Inquiries into this incident are on-going and any links with other incidents would be considered as part of the investigation," said a police spokesman.

"The pet's owner has also contacted us regarding the recovered pellet which will also be looked at as part of the investigation."

Anyone with information about the incident is urged to contact police on 101, quoting crime reference A4/12/383, or Crimestoppers, on 0800 555111.

Open verdict on man who was pushed and hit head during drunken argument

A CORONER has recorded an open verdict at an inquest into the death of a 52-year-old Harlow man who collapsed after apparently being pushed during a drunken argument.

Anthony Daly, of Shawbridge, died in Princess Alexandra Hospital 11 days after he was found in the town centre.

Chelmsford Coroner's Court was told Mr Daly died from brain damage which he suffered after swallowing his tongue during the incident in Terminus Street.

Coroner's officer Paul Roberts said Mr Daly had pushed or shoved during an argument and fell down, hitting his head.

Detective Chief Inspector Mark Hall said Mr Daly was found by police officers lying up against a fire door, adding:

"There were apparent injuries – blood was coming from the back of his head – and they placed him in the recovery position."

"Paramedics arrived and took him to hospital but en route he suffered a cardiac arrest. He was revived but his injuries led to complications and he died on November 28."

DCI Hall said there was some evidence Mr Daly collapsed after being pushed, but CCTV pictures were of poor quality.

He said Mr Daly had been drinking and his blood alcohol reading was 187 milligrammes. The legal limit for driving is 35 milligrammes.

Pathologist Dr Benjamin Swift gave the cause of death as brain damage due to positional asphyxia.

Five reasons why we can be proud to live in Harlow

THIS has been a very special 10 days for Harlow for five reasons.

SPORTS

The amazing achievement by Andrew Osagie and Harlow Athletics Club in the Olympics. It was a proud moment seeing Andrew run the 800m finals just a split second behind the world record holder. This is a tribute not just to Andrew but to Harlow Athletics Club, which is now on the map as one of the great sporting clubs in Britain.

SCIENCE

Harlow is not only a place of sporting achievement but of scientific excellence, too.

The Star has reported that GlaxoSmithKline's drugs test centre for the 2012 Games will now be transformed into a world-leading biotech hub. I have visited it myself and seen the incredible high-tech work that goes on there.

This cements Harlow's place as a scientific corridor in the East of England and will help to bring skills and new technology into our town.

SKILLS AND EDUCATION

We don't just have sporting and scientific success. The Government has now announced a new University Technical College - a pre-apprenticeship school - for 14-19 year-olds in Harlow. Hundreds of local children will soon have the opportunity to study vocational qualifications in medicine and biotech as well as maths and English A-levels.

It is something I, along with Harlow College and

MY VIEW FROM WESTMINSTER

A monthly column by Harlow MP Robert Halfon

Anglia Ruskin University as well as top industry sponsors including Pearson UK, Raytheon and GSK, have campaigned very hard for over two years. The £10m initial funding will go into the Harlow College campus, recently confirmed as the best college in not just England but the whole country.

BUSINESS

Harlow is open for business as well. Not only do we now have the highest business growth in the UK, but the Government has awarded our town Enterprise Zone status.

This means superfast broadband, lower taxes, and investment in our infrastructure and roads. The Enterprise Zone will be a huge magnet for jobs and growth, and should create 5,000 extra jobs in the area.

CULTURE

Harlow has long been an official 'sculpture town' because we have some of the finest visual and public art in the UK. It is a credit to the town's designers and arts societies, especially Gatehouse Arts, the Gibberd Gallery and Parndon Mill, which are all thriving.

Hundreds of residents have been flocking to exhibitions in these galleries in the last few months, proving that Harlow is rapidly becoming the cultural capital of the East of England.

For sport, science, skills, business and culture, Harlow is the place to be. We should be hugely proud of this and shout from the rooftops about what our town has achieved. And all this is on top of the extra £24m already allocated for protecting our local NHS.

Harlow patients who use dialysis will benefit from a new renal unit. The two new units should be available for use from January 2013. This is excellent news for people who have had to travel three times a week for their dialysis and who can spend many hours travelling and waiting for hospital transport.

To have services on Harlow's doorstep will be of great benefit to local patients and their families alike.

Cinema cleared as faulty air-con unit starts blaze

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor

SCORES of filmgoers had to be evacuated after fire broke out on the roof of the Cineworld building in Harlow.

Fire crews were called to the cinema at the Queensgate Centre off Edinburgh Way on Friday afternoon after staff and customers reported a strong smell of burning.

The source of the problem was eventually traced to a small fire in a faulty air conditioning unit on the roof of the multiplex. It took firefighters less than half-an-hour to extinguish the flames and make the building safe.

Sub officer Steve Joyce said: "When we arrived we could smell smoke in the foyer and immediately began tracking down the source.

"It was quickly established there was a small fire in the air conditioning unit on the roof of the cinema. Myself and firefighter Andy Thompson gained access to the roof and we used nine different fire extinguishers to tackle the fire."

The cinema remained closed for the rest of the day as maintenance staff isolated the faulty unit and ran safety checks. It reopened the following morning.

A Cineworld spokesperson said no-one had been injured during the incident and all customers who were asked to leave the building were given complimentary tickets.

"Staff responded immediately by evacuating the cinema and calling the fire brigade who arrived shortly after and dealt with the situation.

"There were no injuries from the incident, but the cinema remained shut for the evening as a precaution and re-opened for business as usual on Saturday morning.

"Customers who were evacuated whilst watching a film have been issued complimentary tickets and those who had booked for showings on Friday evening have been advised that Cineworld will honour their tickets for another showing."

Water firm warns of cold call scam

WATER company Veolia is warning its Harlow customers to be wary of telephone calls from people claiming to be customers services representatives or collection agents representing the firm.

The company has received reports of bogus callers offering discounts in return for the immediate payment of overdue water bills.

It is believed the tricksters have left automated messages and even posted cards through customers' doors demanding money.

Vincent Muldoon, Veolia's director of customer relations, said: "We are very concerned about these unscrupulous people who try to defraud our customers by obtaining their bank details.

"Employees of Veolia Water would never cold call our customers and offer them a discount for payment so we urge people to be vigilant when they give out personal details over the telephone.

We would also not leave a card demanding payment."

The firm has urged anyone who believes they may have fallen victim to the scam to contact their bank or credit card company as soon as possible and alert the police.

"If there is any doubt, do not continue with the conversation, put the phone down and contact our customer contact centre on 0845 7823333 and the police," said Mr Muldoon.

Let's give town cycle tracks the names of medal winners

SIR, I am no apologist for the district and county councils but when correspondent Brian Hood complains of too many potholes on Harlow's cycle tracks (Letters, August 2), I have to say that I and many others ride the cycle network safely on a daily basis.

I feel privileged that we have such a comprehensive network that allows pleasant cycle travel all over the town. Of course the cycle tracks are not in perfect condition but they are very rideable.

The authorities spent a lot of money on resurfacing considerable lengths of the worst-affected tracks a year or so ago and it made a big difference. I have spent a lot of my time over the past 10 years cajoling councils to build more tracks and to look after the existing network. There is more work to be done.

One of the problems of describing the location of potholes/broken glass/litter to councils is the absence of names for most of the cycle tracks. So, with the cheers of the crowds still ringing in our ears following the success of our cyclists in the Tour de France and the Olympic Games, how about a naming scheme using the names of gold medal winners?

There are plenty to choose from: Wiggins, Trott, Kenny, Pendleton, Clancy, Rowsell, Thomas, King, Burke, Kennaugh, Hinde and Hoy, not forgetting our own local Tour de France participant Vin Denson.

Whatever your views, it's good to be cycling, especially in Harlow.

Harlow must reap benefits of Games' sporting legacy

SIR, In my recent book on the history of Harlow Council I recorded some of the initiatives by the council, Harlow Development Corporation and other organisations that made the town a sporting paradise.

These included the first purpose-built sports centre offering a wide range of activities from archery to trampolining (Carl Furrer became world champion in the latter), Essex County Cricket matches, football and an athletics arena as well as the ski slope.

I enjoyed watching top cyclists race at the Burnt Mill velodrome and the show jumping and dressage at the annual Town Show. Every area had school holiday playschemes with lots of sports and games and every area had tennis

"THIS is a picture from my house looking out onto the fields that may become the Golden Way project," writes reader Caroline Oakley, of Old Road, Old Harlow. "Surely this is a sign to stop any development from starting on this beautiful historic land." Do you have a photograph taken in Harlow that you think is good enough to feature in the Photo of the Week section? If so, we would love to see it. Email a high resolution copy in jpeg format along with a brief description of your photograph along with when and where it was taken and your name and address to: star@hertsessexnews.co.uk. Please insert 'Photo of the Week' in the subject line of your email.

The town had a range of all-ages football leagues that produced Glenn Hoddle and many other professional players. The youth centres and play barns provided youngsters with table tennis, badminton and five-a-side football. And let's not forget the sports scholarship scheme.

Fortunately golf, rugby, cricket and tennis – all initially assisted by the council or the development corporation – are all thriving but sadly most of our sporting heritage has been lost due to cutbacks and the loss of government grants.

We are now promised a sporting legacy from the 2012 Olympics. Hopefully Harlow will get the finance to restore our lost sporting facilities so that we can again encourage that participation in sport that once served our town so well.

A change of paint colour may get potholes repaired

SIR, Once a week I drive from Harlow town centre through Sheering to Hatfield Heath and then turn onto the Hallingbury Road and into Bishop's Stortford.

Two weeks ago I noticed that all the potholes along this four-mile stretch of road had been highlighted with yellow fluorescent paint. Last Wednesday I drove along the same stretch of road to find all the potholes had been repaired to a high standard.

In Harlow, red paint is used to highlight potholes. I once used to think that this was to indicate the need for a repair, but how wrong I was. The red paint wears away long before any repairs are carried out. After two or three months if you are lucky the pothole gets repainted.

I have to assume, therefore, the red paint is not to indicate the need for a repair but a warning to motorists of the impending danger and allow them more time to swerve and avoid the obstacles.

Perhaps if yellow paint was used the potholes might actually get repaired. It seems to work in Hallingbury! Maybe someone can enlighten me on significance of the different coloured paint.

Working full time but we can't afford such luxuries

SIR, Whilst I do not profess to be an expert on political matters, I cannot understand or abide the fact that my husband and I both work extremely hard in full time jobs but are surrounded by people who do nothing and seemingly have so much more.

Up-to-date mobile phones, laptops, new cars, cigarettes, alcohol – the list is endless.

We can just about afford to keep our heads above water and cannot afford to buy such things but at the same time we are paying for these people.

As a Christian I would not wish to deprive anybody of their basic needs, but Thessalonians 3:10 says "...if a man will not work, he shall not eat".

Why did PAH not apply its 'strict' discharge criteria?

SIR, How can an organisation dedicated to patient health send a person home alone, drugged to the eyeballs and in her night clothes? (Star, August 9). It beggars common sense and decency.

The spokesperson for PAH NHS Trust displays a total lack of concern or management responsibility. So the trust has "strict criteria" when discharging patients. The question is why wasn't that criteria adopted in the case of Mrs Ellis? Where is the expression of concern? Where is the investigation? No, all they were concerned about was waiting for the patient to contact Patient Liaison and Advice. Perhaps someone should tell him that it is normal policy for the patient's details to be recorded on admission and Mrs Ellis' son left contact details before leaving his mother.

The hospital has all of the facts to hand and should get off its management backside and do something.

Yes, I am disgusted. It is almost unbelievable.

Closing Black Run would save taxpayers' money

SIR, I write again with regards to the Black Run alleyway between Old Orchard and Abbotsweld School.

I would like to point out that it is not only Old Orchard residents who would like this alley closed. It is also Abbotsweld School as they also have cans, bottles and drug paraphernalia thrown into their playing field just like we do our gardens.

By closing this alley the children of the school would be able to play in the field without dodging broken bottles.

It would also save Harlow Council the cost of repairing damaged fencing, litter and removing graffiti, all which happens on a regular basis at the cost to the taxpayer.

Residents should use their energies to clear up alley

SIR, I read with interest the various articles in the Star regarding the alleyway in Old Orchard and I agree with your correspondent last week (Letters, August 9) that the answer is not to close it.

Drug users and vandals are in dark, dirty corners all over the town and sadly we choose to turn away rather than help them.

I haven't been to look at the alley so I don't know how wary I would be to use it as it is. If the residents are so angry, why not use that energy to clear all the dark greenery and trees overshadowing it and make it less foreboding?

As far as I can see from the photograph in the Star, the problem is of its own making. The alley should be a pleasant place to use, not a neglected, dingy tunnel.

Garden bonfires are just as anti-social as flytipping

SIR, I'm sure I'm right in thinking that years ago a lot of Harlow was a smoke-free zone with definite policies on bonfires which could only be lit between certain hours.

There is nothing more infuriating when on a warm day – and let's be honest we haven't had many of those – you hang your washing out and open windows and doors, only to find the air heavy with bonfire smoke.

Not only does this permeate your washing but you cannot enjoy the pleasant scents from the blooms in your garden because you are breathing in acrid smoke from someone's garden rubbish.

A call to the council informed me that such policies no longer exist as they were difficult to police. Surely in this day and age when most people have cars they can take their garden rubbish to the refuse tip or even arrange for a council collection.

With such concerns for the environment these days, I think bonfires are as much a scourge as flytipping.

Man prosecuted after address is found in rubbish bags

A MAN has been fined £200 after his household rubbish was found dumped in a Harlow street.

Jerry Price, who lives in Billericay, was prosecuted by Harlow Council after his home address was found in the pile of household waste.

Mr Price pleaded guilty at Chelmsford Crown Court to the unauthorised deposit of waste.

The court heard that last december Mr Price had paid a "scrap man" to dispose of his household rubbish, which was then dumped in Latton Street.

A resident reported the rubbish to the council whose community safety team carried out an investigation and found details of Mr Price's address in the rubbish.

Mr Price accepted it was his responsibility to dispose of his household waste correctly.

The magistrates stated that although the offence was at the lower end of the scale, Mr Price had acted "recklessly".

As well as the fine, he was ordered to pay a £15 victim's surcharge. The council was awarded costs of £693.94 to cover the costs of cleaning up the rubbish and taking the matter to court.

Emma Toal, the council's portfolio holder for youth & citizenship, said the prosecution would serve as a warning to flytippers.

"Harlow Council spends around £1m a year of taxpayers' money cleaning up after others," she said. "It is irresponsible people and rogue traders that mess up our town and it is Harlow taxpayers who pick up the tab every time."

"If we can take court action like this then we can get some of those costs back and send out a warning that Harlow is not a dumping ground."

Under the Environmental Protection Act 1990, anyone who books someone to take away household waste which is later dumped illegally could be fined up to £5,000.

Incidents of flytipping can be reported to Contact Harlow on (01279) 446655. Anyone witnessing rubbish being dumped is asked note the make, colour and registration of any vehicle involved as well as the location, time and date.

Patient guilty of racist rant at PAH doc is spared jail

By COURT REPORTER
star@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A FOUL-mouthed patient who assaulted and racially abused a casualty doctor at Harlow's Princess Alexandra Hospital after being refused money to get home a cab has been spared jail.

Instead Simon Hobbs was given a suspended sentence when he appeared at Chelmsford Crown Court.

During his trial back in June it was stated by the prosecution that Hobbs (41), from Bishop's Stortford, took a swing at Dr Basherat Bahir after he refused to give an anti-anxiety drug and then refused to give him money to pay for a taxi home.

He was heard by a hospital sister using foul and abusive language in which he repeatedly called Dr Bahir a "Paki" before he also threatened her.

Hobbs told the court he had been unable to obtain medication for various conditions two days earlier and was in pain after having been sent home from the hospital.

"I got rather annoyed, I'd had enough," he said. "I got off the bed and attacked Dr Bahir. I connected with his hand."

Hobbs pleaded guilty to assaulting Dr Bahir but denied a second charge of racially aggravated assault by beating. However, he was found guilty of that charge by the jury and the case was adjourned for pre-sentence reports.

When Hobbs returned to court for sentencing, he was told by recorder Richard Harrison: "I was disposed to imposing a custodial sentence but I shall fall short of that. Although serious, this offence must be treated as an isolated incident."

"Bearing in mind you were craving for drugs it further reduces your culpability."

Hobbs, who now receives medical visits at home and has been told he must not attend Princess Alexandra Hospital other than for emergencies, was given a nine-month prison sentence suspended for 18 months.

Jennie Alford celebrated her 50th birthday by having her head shaved to raise money for St Clare Hospice. Bottom left, Jennie loses her golden locks

Jennie's close shave is now headline news

A MUM who took the bald step of having her head shaved to mark her 50th birthday raised more than £2,000 for St Clare Hospice.

Jennie Alford, of Spencers Croft, let best friend Wendy Ringler loose with a pair of scissors outside Bishop's Stortford train station - where she works as booking office clerk - as commuters arrived home during the evening rush hour.

"I decided I wanted to do something for a good cause as a way to celebrate my birthday," said Jennie. "My hair had grown very long so I just thought why not?"

"I did the Midnight Walk for St Clare Hospice a couple of years ago and wanted to do something a bit different."

Jennie's locks were put into plaits which were then cut off one by one by Wendy before the rest was shaved with a razor. Her hair has now been donated to the Little Princess Trust which makes wigs for children who have suffered hair loss following cancer treatment.

"People were really supportive and I'm chuffed with how much I've raised," said Jennie.

My father was Market Mickey

By VICKY LANE
vicky.lane@hertssexnews.co.uk

MANY readers could almost smell the mouthwatering aroma of burgers sizzling on the grill and frying onions after Nostalgia featured a story about Market Square refreshment bar Vinney's.

But for one person it also brought back memories of the many days she spent working alongside the popular eatery on her mother's stall, Carol's Corner, pictured below.

Karen Taylor, from Staple Tye, said: "My mum Carol and dad Mick ran an underwear stall in the Market Square for over 20 years.

"Seeing the picture in the Star brought back memories for the whole family as we all did a stint on the stall and worked alongside those in the picture. I myself started working on the stall from the age of 16 after I'd left school.

"The chap enjoying the drink is Steve Webb, who ran the flower stall. Sadly he passed away three years ago.

"We think the man in the van with Vinney may be Chas from the material stall, although we are not 100 per cent sure. The guy with his back to the camera could even be my brother, Paul."

Karen said that despite the 5am starts and long hours in all weather conditions, she really enjoyed working in the market.

"I worked right up until the day I had to give birth to my son," she said. "Those were the days when the market was busy and full of stalls. All us vendors were like one big family and actually it was really good wages.

"My dad, who also sadly passed away three years ago, actually managed the market for about five years and was a well-known character in the square. Many knew him as Market Mick or Market Mickey and he later went on to manage Hoddesdon market."

Karen said her mum gave up the stall when the market started to get quieter. "It is so sad to see it all gone now," she added. "We all really miss it."

I refused to eat my school dinner of macaroni cheese

AFTER reading the report about the death of one of Harlow's first council tenants – Ethel Burchell – one reader was inspired to share his recollections of his time as one of the new town's early settlers.

Alan Shadbolt, of Tynley Croft, said he moved to Harlow in 1952 with his parents when the family took up residence in Vicarage Wood.

"My parents lived not far away from Mrs Burchell in Tany's Dell until five years ago when dad had to go into a home," said Alan. "Mum sadly passed away in 1990.

"My first school was Tany's Dell, so Mrs Burchell could well have been one of my dinner ladies."

Although Mr Shadbolt said he does not remember too much from his time at the primary school, there is one memory that stands out.

"I will always recollect one lunch time when we had macaroni cheese which I did not like... and still don't. I wouldn't eat it so was told I would have to sit at the table until I had finished. I ended up sitting there until 4pm with the food still intact!"

Mr Shadbolt's educational journey next led him to the old coaching house that used to be located opposite Harlow Museum, and then to Mark Hall.

"This leads me on to this picture of my old class," he added. "I remember some of names and I am on the back row, fifth from the left. But I thought I could use this opportunity to find out what happened to everyone else?"

1987 From the Star 25 years ago

Three tiny kittens dumped in a Nazeing telephone box are the latest arrivals at a Ryecroft cat sanctuary. Owner Michelle Allard says the new arrivals came shortly after four other kittens and a pregnant cat were left on the shelter's doorstep, bringing her total up to 22 cats.

It was a case of biting the hand that frees you when a stray dog was released by firefighters from a wooden fence. The mongrel, which had its paws caught in the fence at Long Ley, bit one of its rescuers as he set it free.

A fire in the library of Mark Hall School caused more than £50,000 worth of damage to the building and books. County library staff are now going through the process of checking every book for damp and smoke damage to see if anything be salvaged.

Harlow could become a haven for illegal traveller communities if it does not get tough over the problem, town MP Jerry Hayes has warned. He said the council's "softly, softly" approach to travellers would backfire in the end and claimed tougher measures needed to be implemented.

Olympic Park . . . in Lego

HIS budget may have been only a fraction of that spent on the London 2012 Games, but artist Warren Elsmore has created a jaw-dropping tribute to the greatest show on Earth after piecing together a 250,000-brick Lego replica of the Olympic Park.

The 35-year-old was asked by Danish tourism chiefs to build the intricate model three weeks before the start of the 2012 Games.

Working up to 13 hours a day at his studio in central Edinburgh, Mr Elsmore used special tubing and hundreds of plastic hands pulled from Lego figurines to recreate landmark buildings including the Olympic Stadium and the Aquatic Centre.

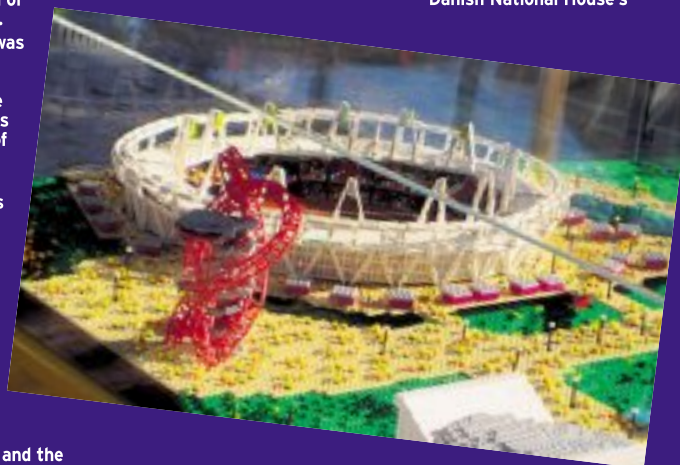

His brilliant model even includes a Lego replica of architect Anish Kapoor's 'Orbit' - the 115 metre-high tower that dominates the park's skyline. Warren, who earns a living building Lego models for businesses, told reporters it had taken him 300 hours of painstaking work to finish the model with a little help from a fellow artist.

"We must have used a quarter of a million pieces in total," he said. "We have built almost the needed between 6,000-7,000 bricks to build that alone. "The most complicated was the Orbit because of the shape."

The model has now been put on public display at London's St Katharine Docks as part of the Danish National House's entire Olympic Park - the main stadium, the Orbit, the Aquatic Centre, the Riverbank Stadium and the Velodrome.

"The Olympic stadium itself was fairly complicated as it's oval-shaped and there are very few right angles in there. I showcase during the 2012 Games - and has even been seen by the Queen of Denmark! Mr Elsmore added: "I do not think I ever expected things to get this far. It was a child's dream to be able to build Lego for a living so I'm very happy!"

Nursery tots say farewell

LITTLE learners have waved farewell to their nursery schools across Harlow as they prepare to take the step up to primary school next month.

Children at Gateway Nursery donned homemade mortarboards and gowns before taking part in a graduation ceremony in front of their proud parents.

They were all given certificates as a reminder of their time at the Perry Road pre-school before performing in a final musical concert.

Childcare director Emma Pike said: "This is the second graduation ceremony we've held. It gives the children a taste of life in big school as well as making them feel grown-up."

"They all really enjoyed the day and the sense of occasion. The fact their parents and families were there to watch them made it extra special."

Youngsters at Fidgety Fingers, Hastingwood, took part in a special Olympics-themed graduation ceremony after spending the morning making gowns and mortarboards.

They then took part in a colourful procession before tucking into tea and cakes at a farewell party.

Nursery manager Jackie Neagle said: "The graduation ceremony is one of the real highlights of our year and this year we felt it was fitting to give it an Olympics theme."

"Stepping up to big school can be quite daunting, so we make sure the children are fully prepared for the transition while giving them a memorable and fun-packed last day."

Staff at Raindrops Nursery also gave their young graduates a farewell to remember after putting on a fun-packed activity day featuring games, a bouncy castle and other activities.

Youngsters at the pre-school in Harberts Road were given gowns and mortarboards to wear for the special occasion, while proud parents had the chance to have professional photos taken alongside their children.

Junior senior Laura Pearce said: "We do everything we can to prepare our children for the big step up to primary school. Holding a graduation ceremony is a great way to say goodbye and mark the start of a new chapter in their lives."

Children at Kiddi Caru also had a first class day after walking the red carpet wearing special hats before picking up their graduation certificates.

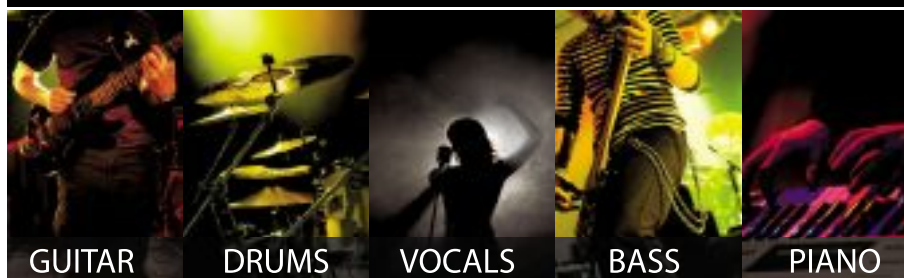

Layla Tweedie, senior staff member at the Kiln Lane nursery, said: "All the children had a lovely day and really enjoyed the sense of achievement that came with graduating."

"We spend a lot of time preparing the children for the step up and find the ceremony is a great way to mark the transition."

100 years

Birthday 'girl' Florence has lived in Harlow since the day she was born

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor
chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

SHE has lived through two World Wars and watched Harlow grow from humble village beginnings into a sprawling new town.

And sprightly Florence Cook proved there really is no place like home when she celebrated her 100th birthday on Monday in the town where she has spent her entire life.

Born in Tye Green Village in 1912, Florence – known as Doll to her close friends and family – has never left the area and still lives in the same house in Manor Road she moved into with husband Ted back in 1937.

Her father was a well-respected blacksmith who ran a forge in what was then Netteswell Village. His strong work ethic was passed down to his daughter, who started as a cook at the age of just 14.

She married local handyman Ted Cook in 1937 and the couple were together for 52 years until he passed away in 1989.

Mrs Cook's niece, Caroline Parker, said her aunt was an "inspiration" to her family, many of whom turned out to celebrate her birthday at a party at Matching Tye Village Hall on Saturday.

And on Monday she was congratulated by Harlow Council chair Maggie Hulcoop, who visited her at her home.

"Although she never had any children of her own, Florence has been a wonderful aunt to some 31 nieces and nephews and more grand and great nieces and nephews than I can count!" said Mrs Parker.

"She has lived in Harlow for her whole life and must surely be the town's oldest council tenant, having been in the same house in Manor Road for the past 75 years.

"She had a great time at her party on Saturday, surrounded by family and friends, and we had another celebration on Monday at her home where she was thrilled to open a message of congratulations from the Queen.

"It's incredible to think of the events she has lived through and the changes she has witnessed over the years. She really has grown up with the town."

60 years

Jim and Rose celebrate their diamond wedding

JIM AND ROSE KING

A COUPLE who moved to Harlow more than 50 years ago to "escape to the countryside" are celebrating 60 years of wedded bliss today (Thursday).

Jim and Rose King, of Woodwards, arrived in the town in 1959 with their two young daughters in search of a better life after spending the first seven years of married life in a cramped Westminster flat.

And for Jim (83), it was a move that saved their marriage. "I really think that if we hadn't moved to Harlow all those years ago our marriage wouldn't have worked," he said.

"We were struggling to bring up two young kids in a small flat in the smog and noise of London. Harlow was like a country retreat back then!"

The couple moved straight into a spacious house in Bushey Croft and Jim soon landed a job with Key Glass where he stayed for 32 years before moving to Johnson Mathey.

Rose (83), who spent 21 years working as an usher at The Playhouse, added: "Even though the town was so young and new people were arriving all the time, everyone was so friendly.

"We made so many great friends in those early years; they were some of the best times of our lives."

The couple are planning to celebrate their anniversary with family.

"Our youngest daughter, Sue, is taking us out for dinner and when our eldest, Wendy, returns from holiday we'll be celebrating again," Jim said. "It's not every day you celebrate 60 years of marriage, so we're going to make the most of it!"

History detectives really dig park life

A COBBLED courtyard was among the many discoveries during an archaeological dig in parkland between Harlow and Sawbridgeworth.

A red brick pathway, an assortment of crockery, slate roof tiles, fragments of old glass and handmade nails believed to date back to the 17th century were also unearthed by volunteers during the two-day event at Pishiobury Park.

Families armed with trowels were invited to join in the discovery day organised by the Friends of Pishiobury Park and supported by Herts County Council and the Countryside Management Service.

Friends secretary Paula Milton said the dig was concentrated on an area where a building was once thought to have stood.

"It was a very exciting two days and the children had a whale of a time," she said. "A lot of those who had spent all day Saturday scrapping, digging and sifting came back the next day and I was amazed at how interested they all were."

"It was such a success that we will definitely repeat the weekend next year."

All the items have been catalogued and the details will be shared with interested parties.

The earliest settlers in the Pishiobury area are thought to have been Neolithic people who built a structure known as a Causewayed Enclosure, which can only be seen from the air and was used as a meeting place for trading, socialising, religious rituals and celebrations.

Evidence of a Roman/British settlement was discovered in 1936 when builders came across six skeletons laid to rest in an ancient burial ground, while the arrival of the Normans saw the construction of a manor house and the park enclosed to contain deer.

The deer park existed well into the Elizabethan era and in 1534 was given over to Henry VIII who granted the estate to Anne Boleyn.

● A HISTORY walk for families to learn about the interesting characters and historical figures associated with Pishiobury Park is being held on Sunday, September 2 at 10am.

For more information, or to join the Friends group, contact Paula on (01279) 724466 or email motherhen-paula@yahoo.co.uk.

KEEPING everyone happy during the summer holidays can be a daunting task, but sometimes you can worry about it too much.

Keep it simple! Summer fun doesn't have to be elaborate and whatever the weather, it's not as if there aren't plenty of opportunities locally to enjoy the outdoors.

What can often put the 'fun' into summer fun ideas is family participation. Try and put aside just a little time when the whole family can enjoy a day - or even half a day together.

And it doesn't need to cost a fortune either. How about a good old fashioned picnic? Kids love eating outdoors and you can make them as elaborate or as simple as you like.

Alternatively, many local pubs come into their own in the summer months. There are so many family-friendly venues now with children's menus, play equipment in the garden, games and more. They are a great place to allow you to unwind while the little ones let off steam - and if you stay for lunch or dinner, you can take the day off the cooking too!

If the weather isn't on your side, then how about using the time to undertake an indoor project you might have been thinking about for a while but just haven't managed to get around to?

When was the last time you had a family photograph taken? The summer holidays are a great time to get a family portrait done and it's one of those things you'll treasure forever, but will only take a short while to complete.

Of course there are a wealth of local museums, activity centres, libraries and more that run some fabulous programmes throughout the summer holidays for all the family.

If you haven't decided yet, why not take a look at some of the ideas on this page - we really are spoiled for choice in this area - and there will be no cries of "i'm bored" in your household!

Garden setting for Goldsmith's classic comedy

SUMMER may have been something of a washout so far, but theatre company DOT Productions hope to bring a ray of sunshine to The Gibberd Garden tomorrow (Friday) with an open-air performance of classic comedy of manners She Stoops To Conquer.

The riotous farce by 18th century playwright Oliver Goldsmith follows the fortunes of well-to-do heroine Kate Hardcastle as she impersonates a chambermaid in order to win the affections of scholarly suitor Charles Marlow, who has a soft spot for bawdy, working-class women.

With a cast of outrageous characters that wouldn't seem out of place in a Carry On... film, the play is a sparkling celebration of chaos, courtship and dysfunctional families that has cemented its place as one of the most popular comedies of all time.

It will be brought vividly to life using a minimal set and lavish period costume in the picturesque grounds of The Gibberd Garden in Marsh Lane, where the Essex-based touring theatre company performed Oscar Wilde's The Importance Of Being Earnest last July.

Producer Julia Curle said: "There's something about a bold comedy that lends itself perfectly to a huge variety of venues.

"Our venues range from intimate theatres to vast gardens and the characters and story work brilliantly in each different setting."

The play begins at 7.30pm. Tickets cost £12 on the door (£8 under-14s) or can be booked in advance online at www.dot-productions.co.uk or by calling (01621) 890153.

Two days of live music at Town Park festival

By CHRIS MOSS

FESTIVAL fever hits Harlow over the bank holiday weekend.

The two-day Linkfest In The Park bash next Saturday and Sunday (August 25-26) will feature a line-up of established local talent, tribute acts and up-and-coming artists.

Organised by local music aficionado Jamie Pring, pictured right, and backed by The Square, Harlow Rock School and The Great Parndon Community Association, the festival will attempt to recreate the electric atmosphere of the town's free gigs of the 1970s and '80s, when the likes of Thin Lizzy, Fairport Convention and 10cc played to audiences of thousands.

"I'm confident we can bring the buzz of those open air concerts back to the Town Park," said Jamie. "People still get misty-eyed when they look back to that era.

"Although it's hard to imagine something on that scale happening today, we're certainly going to give it our best shot!"

The line-up has been split into two themed days, with the first focusing on emerging talent and established local bands and the second – billed as family day by the organisers – featuring some of the UK's top tribute acts and covers bands.

Saturday's bill includes Harlow pop royalty The Sweeney, psych-rockers Deviant Amps and demented funk-metal outfit Papa Shango, with hotly-tipped dub-reggae revivalists Tallowah and indie tykes Three Day Weekend also on the bill.

The following day's line-up – which is being sponsored by the Harvey Centre – includes pub circuit favourites Sax On Fire, Repertoire Dogs and Sounds Of Weller, as well as guitar heroes Wideboy Generation, young singer Mary Cameron and grizzled country-rock covers outfit Billy Goes West. "I'm really pleased with the bands we've managed to get over the two days," said Jamie. "There's something for everyone on the bill, from ska and reggae to rock and pop, and all the acts are really looking forward to performing.

"For some it will be the biggest gig they've ever played and I'm pleased that we're giving them the opportunity to showcase their talent on such a big stage."

More than 5,000 people are expected to attend the festival over the two days. It will also feature sideshows, a fully-licensed bar provided by the GPCA and stalls selling everything from band merchandise to arts and crafts.

"This is going to be a real celebration of Harlow as a hotbed of musical talent and creativity and I hope it will also showcase the strength of the community in our town," said Jamie.

"If this is as successful as I'm hoping it will be, there's no reason why we can't make Linkfest an annual event."

● For more information on the festival, log on to the Linkfest In The Park Facebook event page or email Jamie at linkfest2012@yahoo.co.uk.

Wedding diary rom-com a marriage of laughter

THE WEDDING VIDEO certificate 15, 1h34m

COMEDIAN Rufus Hound leads a British cast in this uproarious comedy of appalling manners that witnesses a relationship come apart at the seams through the lens of the best man's omnipresent camera.

Scriptwriter Tim Firth, who previously penned Calendar Girls, spares the characters few blushes as excitement and expectation turns to anguish and despair, laced with a little tender romance.

Shambolic oaf Raif (Hound) decides to make a video of his estranged brother's forthcoming nuptials as a present to the bride and groom. But when he turns up at the door of his brother Tim (Robert Webb) to immortalise every aspect of the preparations, he discovers the bride-to-be is Saskia (Lucy Punch), a booze-swigging wild child who was the scourge of their school.

Saskia has been polished into a refined, young lady by her well-to-do mother Alex (Harriet Walter), a doyenne of the Cheshire social set, who is determined that the big day will dazzle like her other soirees.

Raif is introduced to other members of the clan, including Saskia's xenophobic grandmother (Miriam Margolyes). And as he spends more time with the soon-to-wed couple he glimpses tiny cracks in their relationship.

The Wedding Video captures the frenzied whirl in the weeks leading up to the 'I do', when even the tiniest setback can tip the bride or groom over the edge.

Webb and Punch are well matched as the happy couple and Walter purses her lips with gusto as she heaps extravagance upon garish finishing touch to trump her rivals. Belly laughs walk down the aisle with touching sentiment and while there's a certain inevitability to the climactic emotional devastation, it's a bow to convention we merrily toast.

THE EXPENDABLES 2 certificate 15, 1h42m

THE boys are back in town for this explosive sequel directed by Simon West. Barney Ross (Sylvester Stallone) and his team – including Lee Christmas (Jason Statham), Yin Yang (Jet Li) and Gunnar Jensen (Dolph Lundgren) – accept a new assignment from Mr Church (Bruce Willis). But what begins as a routine mission descends into bloodshed when rival mercenary Jean Vilain (Jean-Claude Van Damme) murders a member of the Expendables.

Grief quickly turns to rage and the Expendables recruit two new members, Billy The Kid (Liam Hemsworth) and Maggie (Yu Nan), to boost their chances against Vilain and his thugs.

With heavy hearts and even heavier artillery, Barney and co venture into enemy territory, determined to honour the memory of their fallen comrade.

WIN Step Up 4 tracksuit & dance bag PLUS two film tickets

STEP UP 4: Miami Heat is the next installment of the worldwide smash franchise which sets the dance action in the US state of Florida.

This week the Star has teamed up with Cineworld Harlow to give you the chance to win some exclusive merchandise and tickets to see the film in an online-only competition.

When Emily (Kathryn McCormick) arrives in Miami with dreams of becoming a professional dancer, she falls in love with Sean (Ryan Guzman), leader of a street dance crew called The Mob who specialise in elaborate and creative flashmobs. But then a wealthy businessman announces plans to develop The Mob's historic neighbourhood which, if successful, would displace thousands of people from their homes.

Their only hope is for Emily to join forces with Sean, turning performance into protest. But in fighting for the greater good, they run the risk of losing their individual dreams.

This week we are giving away three sets of a Step Up 4 tracksuit and dance bag as well as a pair of film tickets. Five runners-up will receive a pair of film tickets.

To enter, all you have to do is answer this question:

In which US state is the city of Miami?

To enter, visit our website at www.harlowstar.co.uk and click on the Competitions link under the 'Newspaper' tab. Be sure to enter 'Star Step Up 4' in the competition line or your entry will be discounted.

The closing date for entries is noon on Monday, August 20.

>>still on screen

THE BOURNE LEGACY The beginning of the film overlaps with the final chapter of The Bourne Ultimatum and the moment Bourne goes public about the government's intelligence programmes. The clandestine organisation known as Outcome is deemed infected and everybody associated with it has to be extinguished. But soldier/spy Aaron Cross (Jeremy Renner) and Dr Marta Shearing (Rachel Weisz), a genetic scientist who was involved with the development of drugs used by the operatives, escape and must embark on a global adventure in an attempt to outrun the bad guys.

BRAVE (3D & 2D) King Fergus of Clan DunBroch (voiced by Billy Connolly) and his wife Queen Elinor (Emma Thompson) plan to marry off their daughter Merida (Kelly Macdonald) to the first-born son of one of the other clans. However, Merida disrupts the Highland Games which are designed to test the suitors and then flees into the forest where she encounters a witch (Julie Walters) who gives her an enchanted cake which turns Queen Elinor into a bear. The princess fears her father will kill her mother in her fearsome new form, so mother and daughter head into the wilderness to break the spell.

TED A Christmas wish brings the teddy bear belonging to a boy called John Bennett (Bretton Manley) to life. Fast-forward to the present day and John (Mark Wahlberg) now works for a car rental company and has a beautiful girlfriend, Lori (Mila Kunis). When their four-year anniversary dinner ends in a fractious discussion about priorities, John responds by asking the talking toy to move out of the apartment and stand on his own two paws.

DR SEUSS' THE LORAX Twelve-year-old Ted Wiggins (voiced by Zac Efron) lives in the carefully controlled utopia of Thneedville where town mayor Aloysius O'Hare (Rob Riggle) provides the residents with all they need including blissful sunshine - everything except for real plants, which are manufactured in a factory. When girl next door Audrey tells him she wants to see a real tree growing in the backyard of her home, Ted sets off on a mission during which he meets forest guardian The Lorax (Danny DeVito) who tells him the mayor doesn't want real trees restored to Thneedville because the miracle of photosynthesis would jeopardise his lucrative oxygen supply business. Aware of the perils that lay ahead, Ted resolves to bring green back to Thneedville and win Audrey's heart.

THE DARK KNIGHT RISES The Caped Crusader is a fading memory and crippled billionaire Bruce Wayne (Christian Bale) has become a virtual recluse, holed up in his manor with trusty butler Alfred (Michael Caine). But then an encounter with wily cat burglar Selina Kyle (Anne Hathaway) draws Bruce into the orbit of hulking terrorist Bane (Tom Hardy) who plans to destroy the city. As Bane's uprising gathers momentum, Bruce turns to technical genius Lucius Fox (Morgan Freeman) and loyal board member Miranda Tate (Marion Cotillard) to protect his beloved Wayne Enterprise but realises he must don his cowl one final time to save the residents of Gotham.

DIARY OF A WIMPY KID: DOG DAYS Wise-cracking tyke Greg Heffley (Zachary Gordon) is looking forward to spending the summer in front of a TV playing video games. However, his mother Susan (Rachael Harris) has other ideas and encourages her husband Frank (Steve Zahn) to engage with Greg, enrolling the lad in the Wilderness Explorers so they can spend quality time together in the great outdoors.

ICE AGE 4: CONTINENTAL DRIFT Scrut the squirrel sets off a tectonic chain reaction which sees Manny, Diego, and Sid embarking upon another adventure after their continent is set adrift. Using an iceberg as a ship, they encounter sea creatures and battle pirates as they explore a whole new world.

LOOKING FOR A CAR?

100s of new and used vehicles in Drive every week in the Star

Your stars with Patrick Arundell to guide you through the week ahead

Aries Mar 21-Apr 20

This week's New Moon can be so good for you Aries, giving you an extra slice of confidence, especially when it comes to any form of personal expression. Yet with Venus squaring Uranus in your sign, you might find yourself having several changes of mind before you finally decide on a home improvement scheme or relationship. New approaches can help. Call for more advice...

Libra Sept 24-Oct 23

A long term plan can shape up well. You

now know how to balance
your enthusiasm with some judicious planning, and this can prove important.
Socially, you are likely to be buzzing. Yet with your ruler stressed by Uranus,
someone may ask you to do something that could inconvenience you, but also lay on the charm making it hard for you to say no. Call for more news and astral
advice...

Taurus Apr 21-May 21

With the Sun
supported by Saturn, anything earthy can take shape, especially a home based hobby. But it is also possible that something you have been keeping close to your chest, could slip out - perhaps around your love life. If you share a secret, only do so with someone you can completely trust. In fact, there can be more than one surprise revelation. Call for your love scope in full...

Scorpio Oct 24-Nov 22

A long term plan can shape up well. You

now know how to balance
your enthusiasm with some judicious planning, and this
can prove important.
Socially, you are likely to be buzzing. Yet with your ruler
stressed by Uranus,
someone may ask you to do something that could inconvenience you, but also
lay on the charm making it hard for you to say no. Call
for more news and astral
advice...

Gemini May 22-Jun 21

Your ruler continues to be gripped by the magic of Uranus.

Unexpected developments, ebbs and flows, and brilliant suggestions can light up your week. And whilst this can be a fab time socially, it's not such a good time to link up with a friend on a business issue, not unless you have a very clear partnership agreement in place about who does and contributes what. Call for more news...

Sagittarius Nov 23-Dec 21

You might find yourself attracted to someone who has quite a swagger. This person may be someone who doesn't like to play by the rules, but that can make them the most exciting. Yet there may also be something about them that rings an alarm bell. If so, think carefully before committing yourself.

Your love of travel and adventure is also accentuated. Call for more...

Cancer Jun 22-Jul 23

You may well be able to turn the charm on this week, and if you do, well, it could be good for you financially too. Yet with Venus in your sign under pressure from Uranus, a boss may ask you to do some extra hours, or put more work on your shoulders, just when you least expect it. If you're getting to know anyone new, ease both sets of parents in slowly. Call for your financial scope...

Capricorn Dec 22-Jan 20

One close tie can be affected if one of you is enduring a stressful time.

Look again at the situation because a fresh approach may unlock a solution. The same is true of any property or financial issues. In fact, this would be a splendid time to talk with an outside expert because their insights can help you to see a situation that's been stuck, in a new light. Call now for your in-depth forecast...

Leo Jul 24-Aug 23

The New Moon in your sign can help you to strut your stuff with even greater self belief, and this extra confidence can help to bring good things your way. In love, if you feel that you are not completely at the core of your partner's attentions, the freedom lover in you can see your eye wander, but don't be too impulsive Leo, at least not yet! Call me for your love scope in full...

Aquarius Jan 21-Feb 19

Money can cause tension in even the most stable of relationships, and a sudden expense can crop up which shows this.

Yet two minds can work better in finding solutions than can one, and this is a good time to work cooperatively as a lot can come from this.
Romantically, a tie can be rejuvenated. Single? A sparkling exchange can delight you. Call for your love scope in full...

Virgo Aug 24-Sept 23

Friendships and love may not make for a head mix this week. In fact, in general you may be discovering that a few of the people you thought you could rely on, are lightweight, to say the least.

Yet an idea that you've been mulling over for some while in the back of your mind might get an enthusiastic response from someone more knowledgeable. Call for your in-depth forecast...

Pisces Feb 20-Mar 20

Looking at your diet and lifestyle can be helpful. Yet even if you "know this" the temptation to splash the cash can be strong. You might find yourself battling with doing the right thing and doing the thing that would give you some naughty pleasures! Job hunting? Keep an open mind. Your flexible approach can swing something in your direction. Call for more news and astral advice...

Terraced home on private island with fishing rights

coverproperty

Location Burtons Mill, Sawbridgeworth

Category Two/three bedroom terrace

Additional Stunning views over the river, communal front garden, single garage, luxury bathroom

Guide price £349,950

Agent Genesis Property Services, 3 High Street, Old Harlow. Telephone (01279) 422422

COMPLETE with fishing rights from the private island on which it is located as well as the opportunity to moor a boat, this fabulous terraced house is in the little-known location of Burtons Mill, Sawbridgeworth. The riverside house is full of character and has stunning views.

There are two/three bedrooms, an impressive L-shaped sitting room and a beautiful hand-built kitchen.

A solid wood stable door opens into the entrance hall which has tiled flooring and a cloakroom. From there is a carpeted hallway with an attractive spiral turned staircase rising to the first floor and descending to the lower ground level.

The L-shaped sitting room has windows to the front with great views over the River Stort and the countryside beyond. There are exposed beams and structural timbers to the ceiling as well as a rustic red brick fireplace with wooden mantel and raised slate tiled hearth with open fire.

On the lower ground floor level is the stunning kitchen which includes an extensive range of handmade solid wood units with solid wood tops. There is a butler sink and a Rangemaster Gourmet cooker.

A door opens into the utility room which has windows overlooking the river.

Also on this floor is the dining room/third bedroom.

On the first floor landing there are views over the communal gardens and millstream beyond. Off the landing are two bedrooms and the luxury bathroom which includes fully tiled walls with structural beams.

To the front of the house are the communal gardens which are beautifully maintained and laid predominantly to lawn with a private pathway leading to the front.

The property is approached via a private road and there is a single garage en bloc.

Immaculate condition for £209,950

WITH a delightful west-facing garden, this immaculate end-of-terrace property is at Canons Gate in Harlow.

There are three bedrooms as well as a large conservatory and attractive fitted kitchen. Two of the bedrooms have double wardrobes.

The back garden has side access to the drive/parking area and there is a large expanse of lawn enclosed by fencing, together with a workshop.

To the front of the property there is off-road parking with space for two/three cars

Buy this for £235,000

LOCATED on a corner plot in Tickenhall Drive – one of Church Langley's most popular turnings – this attractive, detached property is an ideal family home.

With three bedrooms, a garage, separate dining area and downstairs cloakroom, it's easily maintained yet provides plenty of space.

There is a low maintenance garden tot the front and a pretty rear garden with a lawn, paved area and both flower and shrub borders.

The Harlow office of selling agents Haart has full details. Call on (01279) 443311 if you would like to find out more or to arrange a viewing.

On the market for £325,000

GATEHOUSE to the former Mark Hall Manor and estate, this early 19th century Grade II listed home has much of the original styling still in place.

The property has two reception rooms and two bedrooms, while both the kitchen and bathroom are generous sizes.

Outside, there is a garage and the attractive, private gardens back onto woodland.

The property is located at the centre of the old town, near the High Street and about a mile from Harlow Mill station, Call Howick & Brooker Partnership on (01279) 418888 for full details or to make an appointment to view.

Quiet location for £199,995

TUCKED away in a quiet position and set back from the street with garden on two sides, this semi-detached property is in Woodcroft, an established residential area approximately one-and-a-half miles from Harlow town centre.

The property was extended approximately seven years ago and rewired at the same time.

The extension incorporates a spacious sitting room and relaxation room with hot tub, complete with a waterproof wall covering.

There are two/three bedrooms and although there is no designated car parking, there is casual on-street parking nearby. Call Mackay Property Agents on (01279) 600567 for further details.

Time for You

Selling your property is easy. Just advertise it on line and wait for the buyers to flock to your door!! If only!

Sadly, too many estate agents rely on this approach, which inevitably results in disappointment. Indeed, in some respects finding the buyer is the easy bit. But, when you think about it, there is far more to moving than simply finding a buyer.

At the refreshingly different estate agency Geoffrey Matthew, we believe in helping you move, and this means going far beyond the service offered by most estate agents. It all starts with the amount of time, commitment and personal accountability which we invest in our valued clients.

We won't simply rush in, measure up, stick pictures of your property in our window and hope for the best. We will take the time and trouble to understand all relevant aspects of your situation and then we will work with you to achieve what you want. This may well be the highest price possible, the fastest sale, the most discreet sale, the right person for your treasured home, or you may simply want to dip your toe in the water and test the market.

Whatever your motivation to market your property, we understand, we're highly flexible, and we're on your side.

Additionally, as we are independent of any corporate influence, we are not here to sell you any associated products, although mortgages and conveyancing services are of course available if you need them, and we're prepared to invest as much time as you require from us.

Why not call us on 01279 444988 and arrange an informal chat. You'll find we take the time to listen.

For what has been a pretty miserable summer from both a weather and mortgage perspective it is showing signs of improvement.

Lenders seem to have taken up the baton and are going for gold so to speak.

The reality is they've probably got to half year end and have realised they are way down on their lending targets.

So we've seen significant interest rate reductions by all the big lenders creating some much needed competition and at last some cheer for long suffering consumers, with 5 year fixed rates from as low as 2.99%

If you are just sat on your lenders Standard Variable Rate it could well now be worth while you reviewing your options

Find 1000s of cars locally

A car owner's guide to what's new for 62

WHILE the change of registration no longer provides the big sales kick it used to, the summer change is still a great time for car makers to introduce new models and acts as a timely reminder of what's in the works for the forthcoming months. ANDY ENRIGHT runs the rule over what's new and interesting on a '62' plate.

The market for new cars is picking up slowly but surely, despite a continued run of horrible economic figures.

After a small climb in new car sales in 2010, total sales volumes dropped back 4.4 per cent last year.

But the start of 2012 has been encouraging and perhaps the biggest sign that things are starting to improve is that the biggest growth sectors weren't the austerity-trim city cars and superminis.

The biggest sales increase came in executive class cars, with big SUVs also doing extremely well and luxury class cars seeing a sales spike too. Here are some of vehicles that will be landing in dealerships near you later this year

CITY CAR

By now you'll probably have seen the first batches of Volkswagen up!, SEAT Mii and Skoda Citigo models arriving in dealerships.

All spawned from a single chassis, these three cars look set to give the city car sector a good shake up, replacing the previous triumvirate of Peugeot 107, Citroën C1 and Toyota Aygo as the nation's favourites.

Vauxhall's ADAM is well worth waiting for if you fancy something conventionally powered but funky with it.

Electric cars are becoming a good deal more affordable and none more so than Renault's hugely entertaining Twizy. Seating two in tandem, it's great for urban commuting with its 60-mile range, 47mph top speed coupled with a three and a half hour recharge time.

Alternatively you could try the smart fortwo ElectricDrive but it's decently quick with a top speed of 78mph and strong acceleration off the line. Driven a bit more sedately, it's possible to travel for about 90 miles.

SUPERMINI

Things are shaking up very nicely in the supermini sector. The Peugeot 208 – with its tiny, low-set steering wheel that you look over to read the dials, brilliant 1.2 VTI three cylinder petrol engine, sharp handling and interesting touch-screen infotainment system – makes a strong case for itself.

But the 208 isn't going to have things its own way. Aside from the small matter of the Vauxhall Corsa and the Ford Fiesta, there's the Renault Clio 4 which could be the real mover in this division. Only available in five door guise, it looks anything but frumpy, with a bold front end and a cabin that's stepped up hugely in terms of materials quality.

Fiat's new five-door 500L might well appeal to those who loved the 500 city car but need a bit more room.

Volkswagen's Polo

continues to sell well and its forthcoming BlueGT model is well worth a look. Packing 140bhp from a turbocharged 1.4-litre engine, the BlueGT can shut down a pair of cylinders when cruising, helping it to a fuel economy figure of 60mpg. This from a car that can accelerate to 60mph in just 7.6 seconds and run on to a top speed of 130mph is impressive stuff indeed.

FAMILY HATCH

The Ford Focus continues to steamroller all before it in this sector, but it's interesting to see the bleed to compact cars with premium badges.

Audi's A1 has certainly stolen quite a few sales, especially as it is now offered in a five-door body style while the BMW 1 Series, revised for 2012, is one to keep an eye on. BMW is hoping to do to the family hatch market what it did to the medium range sector.

It's joined this year by Mercedes with its handsome A Class. Here at last is a small Mercedes that drives well and looks great inside and out. It's one to watch, that's for sure.

Both BMW and Mercedes will be looking over their shoulders at the stunning Volvo V40, a car that has premium pretensions yet rides on maybe the best chassis in this class, that of the Ford Focus.

If you like it but want a touch more class, Audi's all-new A3 is worth a look while Vauxhall's Astra continues to quietly improve year on year and a facelifted range with a clever Bi-Turbo diesel engine is just about to hit dealerships.

But the surprise hit of 2012 in the family hatchback segment deserves to be the Kia cee'd. Featuring a high quality interior, multi link suspension, excellent diesel engines and twin-clutch sequential transmission, it's no longer the bargain basement cheapie it used to be but is increasingly posing a challenge that the mainstream can ill-afford to overlook.

It's design stablemate, the Hyundai i30, is equally impressive.

Both cars can be particularly eco-friendly but if you want to go a step further along that path and can afford up to £30,000, the Toyota Prius is now available in super-frugal plug-in guise.

MEDIUM RANGE

Things remain rather moribund in this sector. The Mondeo soldiers on, but the Peugeot 508 and Hyundai i40 remain the most compelling sales propositions.

Volkswagen's evergreen Passat continues to shine in this sector. It may not major on excitement but it's supremely practical, very well built, features a range of ultra-efficient diesel engines and is priced akin to far more mainstream tackle.

Citroën's avant garde DS5 is a left field choice, bringing together elements of everything modern family motorists seem to like – crossover, coupe, family hatchback and sports estate. It's an intriguing package that really does seem to offer something just that little bit different if you were about to opt for just another Mondeo-sized medium range model or German compact executive saloon.

COMPACT EXECUTIVE

The BMW 3 Series, Audi A4 and Mercedes C-Class continue to poach sales from the medium range sector, but of the three, it's Audi which looks to be doing the most to part buyers from their money with the slick A4, facelifted for 2012.

EXECUTIVE

The latest Lexus GS is a stunner. The interior is beautifully finished, the dash looking more like a ridiculously high-end hi-fi than something you'd get in a car and the GS450h hybrid is both rapid and economical.

Mercedes has entered the fray with a diesel hybrid, the E 300 Bluetec Hybrid. The combustion engine is the 2.1-litre four-cylinder unit much as you'd get in the E 250 CDI, which means there's a useful 204bhp right off the bat. Add in the benefit of a 20kW electric motor and you have a vehicle that can accelerate to 60mph in 7.3 seconds and record a top speed of over 150mph, yet when driven a little more modestly will deliver class-leading economy and emissions figures.

Audi has introduced a hot version of its Q5 – dubbed the SQ5 – while Mercedes has the all-new M Class and new GL Class appearing in dealerships soon.

Range Rover Evoques continue to fly out of dealers and the revised Range Rover Sport still attracts a lot of love, but the elephant in this particular room is the new Range Rover, which has been spied testing just about everywhere.

At the more affordable end of the scale, 2012's coolest car might just be Dacia's Duster. It starts at less than £9k in front wheel drive form, but for all-wheel drive and air-con you'll be looking at £14,995.

Mitsubishi launch an all new Outlander this year and both Honda's new CR-V and Hyundai's Santa Fe) look as if they could be excellent. BMW has also improved the styling on the X1, while the Vauxhall Mokka looks a fun prospect if you were considering something small and funky like a Nissan Juke.

MPV

Vauxhall continues to sell Zafira Sport Tourers in their multitudes while Ford does likewise with its durable C and S-MAX models. Its new B-MAX model takes the Blue Oval's MPV expertise into the supermini segment and might well be the next big thing.

SEAT's Alhambra failed to score the big sales its rave reviews promised, but the Toyota Prius+ might well be able to reprise the success of the Prius hatch in a form that works for bigger families.

Vauxhall ADAM breaks mould - a million times

LOCAL Vauxhall dealer Motorsales in Harlow is delighted to showcase the first official pictures of the new ADAM, Vauxhall's urban-chic car that can be personalised in more than a million different ways.

Using premium materials and design cues often found in the luxury sector, ADAM is a three-door four-seater that will be unveiled at this year's Paris Motorshow, before arriving at the dealership in Elizabeth Way in January 2013.

Designed by Brit Mark Adams' team in Europe, ADAM incorporates a 'floating' roof which is visually disconnected from the body, making the use of two-tone colour schemes more impactful than ever before.

Jo-Ann Tinson, dealer principal of Motorsales, comments: "ADAM bucks the trend for retro-based design with a fresh and bold look that will appeal to open-minded individuals who want to defy convention with a car that's distinctive and striking.

"And it's those very customers that we are targeting with ADAM's high degree of personalisation options. Available in three trims from launch - JAM (fashionable/colourful), GLAM (elegant/sophisticated) and SLAM (racy/sporty) - ADAM customers can effectively 'build' their own car."

There are almost unlimited visual combinations, with a wide variety of exterior colours, including two different roof colours; interior colours; equipment and materials. Customers can even choose their headlining, including an LED-lit starlight roof trim.

Jo-Ann continued: "No other car in this segment can be individualised as much as ADAM because we are offering virtually unlimited exterior/interior colour, fabric and kit combination choices. It's very unlikely that you'll find two identical ADAMs out there."

Unique to the A-segment is ADAM's new top-of-the-range infotainment system designed to support new media

first in the class.

ADAM will be available to order from Motorsales after its official premiere at the Paris Motor Show in September, with the first cars reaching customers in January 2013.

As with all Vauxhalls, ADAM comes with lifetime warranty, which covers first owners for the lifetime of the car, or up to 100,000 miles.

To find out more about the ADAM or for details of other offers and vehicles available in the Vauxhall range, visit Motorsales at 1-7 Burnt Mill, Elizabeth Way, Harlow, Essex CM20 2HT. Alternatively, call (01279) 412161 or go online at

Bring Spanish sunshine to summer with SEAT

BARCELONA-based SEAT is turning up the heat on the competition with a suite of scorching special offers ahead of the launch of the new 62 registration on September 1.

Available now at Harlow retailer CMC Harlow, the red-hot deals extend across the dynamic carmaker's range and make owning a new SEAT more affordable than ever.

And they mean that yet another hit-and-miss British summer could end with a ray of Spanish sunshine for canny car buyers visiting the dealership's Edinburgh Way showroom... allowing them to be among the first to sport a 62 plate on the road.

The undoubted highlight of the latest batch of deals is an amazing discount of nearly £2,000 off the RRP of the stunning Ibiza SC 1.2S – the perfect embodiment of SEAT's sporty and young-spirited ethos.

This huge reduction means the car is available for an astonishing £8,995 RRP and, for those opting for a highly competitive SEAT Finance Solutions package, with zero deposit and 41-monthly repayments of just £172. But despite its bargain price, the striking sports coupé features a wealth of goodies, including remote central locking, air conditioning, an MP3-compatible CD player with AUX-in and remote audio controls as standard.

Another star model available to benefit from the latest round of SEAT special offers is the brilliant Mii city car, which was launched a matter of weeks ago.

It may be the smallest model in the SEAT line-up, but the Mii's ingenious design gives its interior a spacious and comfortable feel, while its highly efficient state-of-the-art engine packs plenty of punch and delivers a great driving experience.

What's more, even the entry-level Mii comes with a generous spec. And you can add the very latest in multimedia

NEW KID ON THE BLOCK: The new Mii city car was launched only a few weeks ago. Its spec is already generous, but the SEAT Portable System, far left, can add the very latest in multimedia technology technology, thanks to the SEAT Portable System – a single device which incorporates sat-nav and Bluetooth and displays information from the radio, CD player and on-board computer at a glance.

Best of all though, the new Mii is now available from just £7,845 RRP while the SEAT Mii SE 1.0 can be driven away with zero deposit and 42 monthly repayments of £160 on a SEAT Finance personal lease.

CMC Harlow sales manager Paul

Holmes said: "2012 has been arguably one of the most thrilling and important years in SEAT's history and the array of deals and special offers available across the range will only add to the excitement.

"With people everywhere trying to make every penny count at the moment, I'd urge anyone who's thinking of buying a new car – and even those who perhaps need a new car but don't think they can afford it – to pop in to see us and find out just how affordable owning a fantastic new SEAT can be."

For more details of the latest special offers across the SEAT range, or to book a test drive, visit CMC Harlow's Edinburgh Way showroom now, or call (01279) 775900.

Hyundai i20 combines great purpose with logic

CMC Hyundai Harlow prides itself on delivering quality cars and quality service to all its customers.

This commitment to providing the best service and customer experience runs throughout Hyundai and the new i20 is proof that quality and new thinking are an integral part of everything we do. Every aspect of the new i20 combines confident and contemporary design with greater purpose and logic. A focus on aerodynamics, brighter visibility, improved safety and stability has resulted in a perfect match of form and function. Classic and Active 1.2 petrol models are available in 3- or 5-door versions to cater for your needs as an individual, couple or family.

The new i20 is also one car that possesses many senses. Smart technology is one of its hallmarks and everywhere you look you'll discover intelligent features. From emissions-lowering technology to state-of-the-art parking assistance and sensors that react to light and rain. Not to mention electric front windows, USB and aux connections and one touch indicators as standard. What's more, Active and Style models also benefit from Bluetooth® connectivity with voice recognition keeping you in touch with family and friends, while steering wheel audio controls give you the freedom to choose your music without being distracted.

You'll find that the new i20, pictured above, is just as forward thinking under the bonnet. Across the range, every engine in the i20 range has been updated compared to its predecessor, to provide better efficiency and lower CO2 emissions. Plus we've introduced the i20 Blue 1.1 CRDi, which, at only 84g/km, produces the lowest CO2 emissions of any conventional diesel combustion car in the UK.

The Blue model also benefits from a staggering combined 88mpg all thanks to Blue Drive technologies such as Intelligent Stop and Go, where the clutch cuts out the engine at stops, then re-starts when pressed again.

With brains comes style. The new i20's interior has evolved the simple elegance of the previous model by introducing a gloss black fascia - lending definition and clarity to the dashboard. Like all of our passenger cars, subtle blue lighting adds to the overall relaxing ambience in the new i20 but also helps limit eye strain on longer journeys.

The centre console places all safety, air conditioning (not available on i20 Blue) and audio controls in a highly intuitive layout.

With prices starting from £8,695, when you buy the new i20 you're not just buying a stylish and efficient car. You're also buying peace of mind, because every passenger car in the Hyundai range also comes with our industry leading five-year triple care package, which includes a five-year unlimited mileage warranty, five-year roadside assistance and five years of vehicle health checks. For more information visit our dealership at Edinburgh Way, Harlow or call our friendly sales team on (01279) 775900.

i30 wins trophy for best value hatchback

THE new generation Hyundai i30, launched in March, has been awarded best value hatchback in the annual Practical Caravan, The Camping & Caravanning Club & What Car? Towcar Awards 2012.

The i30, pictured above, which can tow up to 1,500kg, was commended by the judges after a series of gruelling tests designed to find Britain's best towcar. Tests included high-speed stability, braking, emergency lane change, hill starting and overall practicality.

Nigel Donnelly, Haymarket Outdoor Leisure Group's editor-in-chief - digital, said of the Hyundai i30: "We'd happily tow long distances behind the wheel of the i30. It has a very agreeable ride and is a stable towcar. There's plenty of cabin space and the boot swallowed all of our holiday luggage. It also comes with a five-year warranty and five years' breakdown cover which, together with the keen list price and long list of standard kit, earns it the best value hatchback award."

Tony Whitehorn, president and chief executive officer of Hyundai Motor UK Ltd, said: "It is a true testament to the style, refinement, efficiency and all-round practicality of our new family hatchback."

The i30 has also recently been awarded Car of the Year 2012, as well as best family car by leading car review website, CarBuyer.

Priced from £14,500 on the road, the i30 is on sale now at Hyundai dealerships throughout the UK. For more information or to book a test drive, visit CMC Harlow, or log onto www.cheshuntmotor.co.uk.

62 PLATE

Toyota Yaris, the most affordable hybrid car

When Toyota's Yaris first appeared in 1999, it hit a lucrative nerve.

People loved the idea of a low-cost but well-built supermini with the bonus of Toyota's peerless reliability record. That car was replaced in 2005 but six years is a long time and, although the second generation car was undoubtedly better, its moment in the sun had passed.

Still a group of loyal buyers kept sales respectable right through to that car's replacement this year. In the meantime Toyota had been forging ahead with hybrid technology, primarily in its massively successful Prius but also increasingly in 'core' models such as the Auris hatch. It was only a matter of time before they figured out how to make hybrid work in a Yaris. That time has arrived.

Toyota certainly hasn't cut any corners in engineering the Yaris Hybrid. If you were expecting an electrically assisted version of the 1.33-litre petrol engine that powers the usual higher range Yaris models, think again. The hybrid gets a 98bhp 1.5-litre four-cylinder powerplant mated to Toyota's Hybrid Synergy Drive.

An e-CVT gearbox takes care of cog-swapping which is a boon in city traffic, meaning drivers can rest their left legs. As with the Prius and the Auris hybrids, the Yaris can run on electrical power alone for short distances, helping to reduce noise in town centres. You will need to watch out for pedestrians who step into the road in front of the car.

It looks much like a 'conventional' Yaris model which, I guess, is part of the appeal. It's the same story inside. The Yaris Hybrid offers the same occupant space and 286-litre luggage capacity as conventional petrol and diesel Yaris models. The controls are sensibly positioned and the dash features an eco gauge to help you drive more economically.

Toyota makes quite some play of the fact that, upon launch, the Yaris Hybrid is the most affordable hybrid car on the MARKET LEADER: Even the entry level model comes with electric front windows and mirrors and an MP3-compatible CD stereo seat, 'follow-me-home' headlights and an MP3-compatible CD stereo.

Now for the crunch. Does the Yaris Hybrid stack up on the balance sheet? In one instance, it's an absolute no-brainer. If your daily commute takes you into London's congestion charging zone, the exempt Yaris Hybrid will save you thousands of pounds a year over a conventionally powered rival.

There's a lot to like about the latest Toyota Yaris Hybrid. It's keenly priced, the technology is tried and trusted and it pitches into a vacant part of the market. It won't stay vacant for long as many rival manufacturers are eyeing it with envy, but Toyota is the first and it'll take quite a package to wrest its lead away.

Scrap

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoringBERR

End of the road? Get over it and move on with your local ATF:

B & T Motor Salvage

We offer free collection, on the same day if necessary, using our own recovery vehicles and issue a Certificate of Destruction from the Department of Vehicle Licensing Authority via our direct link to their website. Payment per vehicle negotiable.

Call Adrian or Mark on 01707 391333

Quality Assurance/ Regulatory Affairs Engineer

We are currently looking for a QA/RA Engineer to work as a key member of a small dynamic QA/RA team that ensures that our manufacturing site conforms to regulatory standards and procedures. You will be expected to support the design & development team providing quality assurance and regulatory guidance. In addition key tasks will involve internal auditing, maintenance of the QMS, report writing and continuous improvement activities.

As well as looking for individuals who have had experience of QA/RA within the medical device industry, we are also open to individuals who come from different industry backgrounds who have an understanding of quality and regulatory standards and have a desire to advance their career in this field.

Toolmaker

We are looking for an experienced Toolmaker to join our growing team. You will carry out various Tool Room tasks effectively and efficiently within specified time limits. You should have the ability to read engineering drawings and have experience of the manufacture of injection moulds, tools, press tools, jigs and fixtures. You should also have knowledge of materials used for tool making and mouldings. We are looking for someone with good IT skills with the ability to use their own initiative on design and problem solving. This role is covering an evening shift, so flexibility with working hours is also required.

To apply for either position please send a full CV with covering letter, quoting your current salary to Mrs Kennedy Reed, Personnel Manager, Clement Clarke Holdings, Edinburgh Way, Harlow, Essex CM20 2TT. Or e-mail: kreed@clement-clarke.com

COMMERCIAL MANAGER

We have a vacancy for an experienced and innovative Commercial Manager to drive revenue growth in an exciting portfolio of market leading products.

hen Herts & Essex Newspapers

YOUR PROFILE:

You will possess a level of seniority required to manage performance and productivity, take commercial ownership of a portfolio of products, and execute a sales strategy that enables the business to maintain and grow its position in the market.

Experience of working in the media sector is not essential although a strong understanding of digital technology will be a distinct advantage, and client facing presentations will form an important part of the role.

We offer a competitive basic salary with an on-target bonus scheme, company car, and the chance to work for a company that rewards excellent performance and invests in people who demonstrate an aptitude for creating opportunities.
 Closing date 17th August 2012

The commercial manager will also ensure that we maintain a reputation in the market for delivering exceptional service to our customers, therefore ensuring a high level of renewals and additional business.

In addition, working with a team of talented journalists and designers you will also have the opportunity to develop innovative new products.

It is the company policy to welcome applications from any individual regardless of ethnic origin, gender, disability, religious belief, sexual orientation or age. All applications will be considered on merit.

Applications should be sent for the attention of Nicole Want, Herts & Essex Newspapers, 40 Ware Road, Hertford SG13 7HU

Cruise the Rhine to Switzerland

Departs 4 October 2012

Our border-hopping route wends its way through the Rhine Gorge of Germany, the scenic Alsace region of France and into the northern mountain slopes of Switzerland. From our cruise ship we see countless magical castles perched on the hillsides, romantic Rhineland towns and villages with their half-timbered buildings as well as pretty river tributaries rushing to meet the mighty Rhine. After the steep vine-covered slopes of the dramatic Rhine Gorge, the Rhine's waters broaden, the climate warms and the land flattens out to reveal the Rhine Plains.

Price includes

- Executive return coach travel from your chosen departure point
- Return ferry crossing from Dover to Calais
- En-suite cabin accommodation aboard the mps Lady Anne
- Full board during your cruise
- Visits to Andernach, Rüdesheim, Speyer, Gernersheim, Strasbourg, Lucerne, Breisach, Basel, Kehl, Mannheim, Mainz and Cologne
- Cologne walking tour

Fitness test

THE fitness of Harlow Running Club member Andy Kinney was tested when he completed the Cross Bay Challenge.

Sunday's event was a half marathon and Kinney clocked two hours, 29 minutes and 17 seconds, coming 417th from 563 finishers.

The race was held at low tide and entails running in water up to mid thigh in places. This year's event was marked by a severe head wind and rain.

It started at Flookburgh in Cumbria and crossed the sands of Morecambe Bay finishing at Hest Bank in Lancashire.

>>Cont'd from back

Games. It's nice to be part of a successful team. We've displayed heart and guts, we definitely weren't going to lose and come away empty-handed.

"We had a fantastic first half to be honest; we weren't worried that it ended 0-0. We had enough chances; put it near the goal enough times.

"We ground them down. We knew our fitness would come into it.

"We knew we just needed to be patient, and when the first goal came, and then the second, we knew that was it – we knew we had them."

Chapman: Curb your enthusiasm

Hawks boss says top 10 finish is aim for this season

By DAVID RIMMER

david.rimmer@hertsessexnews.co.uk

ANY expectations of the play-offs or roaring success for the forthcoming season have been firmly dampened down by Hawks boss Danny Chapman.

Harlow Town's promotion hopes were dashed in 2010-11 when they lost 4-2 to Wingate & Finchley in the semi-finals of the play-offs before they finished seventh last term.

The Hawks open their Ryman League division one north campaign at Heybridge Swifts this Saturday before they host relegated Aveley next Tuesday.

A cautious Chapman said: "We will take it one step at a time. I have a few young lads in the side and I do not want to put pressure on them.

"I will be very pleased with a top 10 finish."

He added: "I do not know much about Heybridge but they have a decent pitch which will help.

"Night games have an atmosphere about them and Aveley have come down [from the premier division]. They have signed players [in the summer] and I expect them to be a decent side."

Chapman has a few injury concerns for the Heybridge game.

Right-back Donny Barnard (groin strain) is doubtful, while Chapman rates forward Piers Wixon (hamstring injury) as being 50/50.

Striker Jeff Hammond has a slight hamstring problem but he should be fit.

Chapman said: "I do have Reece Dobson [up front] and it could be that I have to get in a forward on loan.

"If Donny is not fit, Getro Kilapi will be captain."

Meanwhile Chapman has signed central midfielder and former Carshalton Athletic player Jack Knight, (17), while forward Leon Antoine has left Harlow to join AFC Sudbury.

Chapman explained: "It would have been nice to have kept Leon. He could have combined with Jeff Hammond or Piers Wixon. He wanted to move because of personal circumstances. We have to move on.

BREAKING THROUGH: New signing Evans Kouassi tries to find a way through

"Jack is good technically and he has a good attitude."

Harlow's pre-season was rounded off with a 0-0 home draw against Ryman League premier division club Concord Rangers five days ago.

It also meant they have been unbeaten in six friendlies.

New signing Connor Cranmer, who was on Colchester United's books as a teenager, looks very capable at left-back.

The result meant that Harlow had not conceded a goal in the pre-season Chapman said: "Two of our defence [Liam Thomas and Cranmer] were not around last season and the way they have come together is excellent.

"In our last two games against higher teams, Bishop's Stortford and Concord, they tried everything to break us down but they did not."

HARLOW TN: Bossu, Taylor, Cranmer, Thomas, Brown, Kilapi, Muguo (Knight), Levett, Hammond (Kouassi), Wixon (Gill), Dobson. Subs: Haverson, Charles, Deane, Gill, Tamai (gk).

Tailenders save Harlow in draw

Hornchurch 191-9, Harlow 134-9

Match drawn

Shepherd Neame Essex League, division one

YOUNGSTERS Andre Riddell and George Kenny were the heroes as they ensured Harlow drew at fellow strugglers Hornchurch.

Hornchurch batted first and scored 191-9 before Harlow collapsed to 87-8 after Rehman Ahmed (31) had made the only worthwhile contribution.

With more than 18 overs left, Harlow were staring at defeat but Riddell (24 not out) and Kenny survived 16 overs.

Kenny was then dismissed for 18, but number 11 – Harlow skipper Luke Heskett – and Riddell held firm for more than two overs to prevent Hornchurch from winning.

Australian quick bowler Nathan McAndrew took four wickets for Hornchurch.

Hornchurch are still ninth and 25 points behind 8th placed Harlow after the former got 10 points and the visitors garnered five from Saturday's clash.

If Hornchurch had won they would have got 25 points and would have been 10 points behind Harlow instead of 25.

Heskett said: "It was crucial that we did not lose. The two young lads [Riddell and Kenny] battled superbly and showed a lot of grit. The top order has to improve dramatically at Fives and Heronians this Saturday."

Earlier, Harlow had fielded well in restricting the hosts to 191-9 in 52 overs.

Some good catches were taken, while spinners Usman Jan and Ahmed Khawaja thrived and did most of the work.

Jan took 4-63 from 22 overs and Khawaja claimed 5-65 from 19 overs.

Other results: Shepherd Neame Essex League 2nd XI div two: Harlow II (264-7; Nino Calvino 101) drew with Benfleet II (176-9); 3rd XI div two Harlow III (244-3; Rohan Aswani 76 not out) bt Wanstead & Snarebrook IV (243-4) by 7 wks; 4th XI div two: Harlow IV (80-0) bt Upminster VI (76; Niall Lawless 5-28) by 10 wks; 2nd XI div three: Harlow Tn II (87) lost by 134 runs against Epping II (221-5); 3rd XI div three: Harlow Tn II (158-0; Daniel Dewey 68 not out, Daniel Baldwin 57 not out) bt Benfleet III by 10 wks; 4th XI div two: Harlow Tn IV (107) lost to Billericay IV (108-1) by 9 wks.

Herts & Essex League div three: Potter Street (84-4) bt High Roding II (83) by 6 wks; div six: Potter Street II (61-1) lost to Birchanger (60) by 9 wks.

Magnificent seven as Town march on

Epping 103, Harlow Tn 105-3

Harlow Tn won by seven wickets

Shepherd Neame Essex League, div three

RAMYA Upadhyay took his best ever career bowling figures of 7-31 for Harlow Town when they beat a weakened Epping side comfortably.

It was his also his second seven-wicket haul in consecutive weeks after he took 7-49 against Pegasus & Corringham 12 days ago.

Ten-man Epping batted first and although their top four all got into double figures their hopes of a decent total were destroyed by Upadhyay's 10.5-over spell.

Dan Calver (1-21) and Scott Baker (1-11) were Town's other wicket-takers as Epping were bowled out for 101.

Upadhyay completed a fine all-round performance with an unbeaten 35 as Town knocked off the target inside 23 overs.

First team league debutant Johan Cloete (21 not out) and Shiraz Ali (21) also chipped in.

Town skipper Dan Calver said: "Ramya [Upadhyay] has bowled very well over the last two weeks. He has turned the ball well and his flight has been good."

"Johan batted well, as did Ramya after we lost two quick wickets."

The win keeps Town in third place and eight points behind second-placed Hutton.

@RogersChloe12 If anyone is around & wants to say hello to us hockey ladies we are in Hyde Park today from 5-30pm. We will be bronzing ourselves! #TeamGB

@RogersChloe12 Thank u for all the support it has been an incredible journey with this squad! The whole nation buzzing too what a feeling, thank u GB! @RogersChloe12

Wow Bronze medal today! Absolutely buzzing amazing feeling to be Olympic Medalist!! Woop woop @andrewosagie

Did anyone see me on Sky Sports news? Had a wicked time thank you guys! <http://pic.twitter.com/WCGHFD60> @andrewosagie Just out getting lunch with the Osagie clan.. Pretty easy guess where we've gone as I decided!

@andrewosagie All I can say is I bet David (Rudisha) can't clean off a double breasted pitta mango 'n lime with pineapple and halloumi in 1:41 so we'll call it 1-1!

@andrewosagie Ha ha any other champion! So happy to run a massive PB in an Olympic Final and big well done to my Coach @CoachWinrow!

The Star's ANDREW FRANCAZAK was at the scene as Chloe

CHLOE Rogers can reflect on a wonderful Olympics.

The Harlow-born hockey player, was a key part of the Great Britain's women's team which secured a bronze medal.

Rogers, 27, said: "It's been absolutely fantastic playing in front of these crowds; it's been brilliant all week we knew it would be being in our home country!

"I've not experienced anything like it before, we've had support like this in other countries – but it's been against us.

"When you first walk out it's always a goose-bumpy moment, especially when the national anthem is played and everyone is singing along. It's fantastic and definitely helping us.

"It's very nice in the village, not like Beijing or the Commonwealth Games, we've got all the comforts of home and being able to see your friends and family.

"The opening ceremony was one of those unbelievable moments I'll never forget. We were fortunate enough to be able to go because we weren't competing until the next day. It was very special, and it marked the starting point of the tournament for us that we're here to do a job.

"We started very well. To get three wins out of three, it set us up very nicely for the final stages, that hard work got us into the semis."

Rogers, who plays for Leicester in the National Hockey League, admits the funding the team has received from the National Lottery has paid dividends.

"We've been training for three-and-a-half years for this full time thanks to the National Lottery so we were not going to give it up easy," she said.

She now hopes the bronze medal can transform the sport.

"The Olympics is fantastic for hockey. We get a lot of coverage, we were all inspired when we were young watching someone at the Olympics. I was lucky to have a teacher who encouraged me into hockey – you always need someone to push you into the sport to give you an opportunity whether it's at school or at a local club.

"To have this much publicity and hopefully if we do well to raise the profile of the sport can only be good for the future of the sport."

Rogers hopes the Games will inspire a generation.

Her message to youngsters was: "Hockey is a great sport, it's fantastic to be part of a team, it's fast, it's athletic, skilful – it's a great all-round sport. It's a very friendly sport, so give it a try!"

Rogers has been delighted to see Team GB do so well in the medal tables.

The nation finished third overall, just behind China and the USA, home to much, much larger populations.

"It's been fantastic. I'm a massive sports fan so I've watched quite a lot of it. It's great when you see the medal board count go up and you want to be part of that."

The hockey star was also overwhelmed by the volume of support. "It's been unbelievable, all the messages on Facebook, Twitter and emails. It's been lovely hearing from people you haven't heard from for a while," she said.

ROYAL HIGHNESS: The Duchess of Cambridge at the hockey. Inset, Chloe Rogers (s)

Chloe met Princess Kate

CHLOE Rogers and her GB women's hockey team-mates had a date with royalty moments after their wonderful 3-1 victory over New Zealand secured the Olympic bronze medal. Just after the final whistle and having done their celebratory lap of honour in front of 16,000 adoring fans at the Riverbank Arena, they were whisked away to meet the Duchess of Cambridge who had been watching the match from the VIP stand. Rogers, who hails from Harlow originally, was speaking to the Star in the mixed zone at the time, when she was grabbed by some other members of the team and told to hot-foot it round the corner to meet Kate. Rogers said: "She's [Kate's] been absolutely brilliant for the sport – all the Royal Family have. Sophie (the Countess of Wessex) came and watched one of the games as well. It's wonderful to have them at our games. As long as we can win for her – we lost the other games she came to watch. It's brilliant that she's here." The Great Britain team were in jubilant mood after beating the Kiwis thanks to second-half goals from Alex Danson, Crista Cullen and Sarah Thomas.

Shooting club member's role at London 2012

HARLOW shooting enthusiast Paul Smith was thrilled to be involved at London 2012.

The United Glass Rifle and Pistol Club (RPC) member was a volunteer at the shooting venue at Royal Artillery Barracks in Woolwich, South East London.

Smith has been able to witness the top quality international shooters.

These include when fellow United Glass RPC member James Huckle competed for GB.

Smith, from Lodge Hall in Harlow said: "I have been fortunate. I worked on the shotgun range where I refereed a practice double trap shoot with Peter Wilson [2012 Olympic gold medalist] and Richard Faulds [2000 Olympic Gold medalist], as well as operating a special mower that vacuums up the broken clay discs.

"As a result I have been able to follow James Huckle's shoots from the World Cup test event in April through to his three at the Olympics.

"His consistency shows he is in the top 25 shooters in the world and is a credit to the United Glass RPC, Harlow and Essex."

Smith's duties on the Olympic firing range included manning check points to allow only correctly accredited people onto the firing point, collecting the scoring print rolls from the score recording printers (one for each target) from the range officers along the 70 targets.

He said: "The primary role was to change the backing cards which can identify a cross shot from a wrong firing point.

"This can prove if a shooter fired the correct number of shots if there are too many shots fired at a target."

He added: "I am also doing the same for the Paralympics at the end of the month, except there is no shotgun [event]."

Smith's United Glass RPC, based in London Road, Old Harlow has had a tough time.

Smith said: "Our club has had a rough time over the last 18 months as our premises have been burgled, vandalised and set on fire seven times since the United Glass Sports and Social Club was closed and demolished.

"As a club the team was not able to shoot and defend the 50 yards Metric League title and Cup that it had held for the previous three years."

Rogers and Osagie took centre stage at London 2012

SO CLOSE: Andrew Osagie is dejected after finishing last in the 800m final as David Rudisha celebrates (PA)

'All I can say is I bet David [Rudisha] can't clean off a double breasted pitta mango 'n lime with pineapple and halloumi in 1:41 so we'll call it 1-1 - Osagie

Osagie would have secured gold in last three Olympics

KENYAN David Rudisha might have blown Andrew Osagie and the rest of the field away in the Olympic 800 metre final with his world record time, but the Harlow Athletic Club member knew instantly how close he was to gaining a medal.

Perhaps Osagie, like Andy Murray in tennis with all-conquering Rafael Nadal, Roger Federer and Novak Djokovic has been born at the wrong time!

Certainly GB legends Steve Cram, Steve Ovett and perhaps even Seb Coe would struggle to beat world record holder David Rudisha, while 17-year-old bronze medallist Timothy Kitum looks as though he could give his fellow Kenyan a run for his money in a few years' time.

Osagie's time would have won gold at the last three Olympic Games.

He clocked 1 minute 43.6 seconds, shaving nearly a second off his previous best.

Osagie, 24, of Northbrooks in Harlow, said afterwards: "At any other Olympics this kind of time would have won a medal - at any other major championships. As far as the race it was an honour to be in the race and to run a personal best, I was one second quicker [than his PB], but I came last. So there's mixed emotions at the moment."

"It gives me great confidence. My final was on Tuesday [in the semi-final]. Even to get to the final was brilliant. I knew I was in shape to run a personal best, it's not the performance I wanted, but you can't argue with a PB. To get a PB in the final I hope all of you back home respect the fact that I've done it and I'm sure they will."

Osagie started in the inside lane but found himself in seventh for most of the race as his rivals struggled to keep up with the phenomenal pace of Rudisha.

Rudisha clocked 49.2 for the first 400m, an incredible pace.

"I was hoping everyone would come back to me a lot. That's a lot quicker than I have ever run in 600 metres," Osagie said.

But having tried to keep up with such a fast pace, Osagie was unable to find that explosive kick in the last 100 metres that had secured him second spot in the semi-final.

"I gave my all, but in the end it was not good enough. I would just like to thank my family, my coach Craig Winrow and everyone at St Mary's [where Osagie trains]. I've had a great time and really enjoyed it," he added. "Watch out for me in the future."

The silver medal was won by Nijel Amos (1:41.73), from Botswana, and the bronze went to 17-year-old Timothy Kitum (1:42.53).

The future is bright for Osagie, who has not reached his peak as an 800m runner yet, and the Olympic Games in Brazil in four years' time is when he will have a great chance of winning a medal.

honour GB legends praise Andrew

WHAT it must be like to enter an arena as magnificent as the Olympic Stadium for a final in front of 80,000 noisy people is difficult to imagine - especially when you have the added pressure of a home crowd and the expectations of a nation on your shoulders.

I was sitting in the press benches just a few feet away from where the athletes enter to do their pre-race limbering up - and I can tell you Andrew Osagie looked nervous as hell. But then who wouldn't?

He seemed to pause for a moment just to take in the atmosphere, the smell of the track and the Olympic cauldron burning brightly right in front of him. He paced up and down, doing a few stretches and then returned to his kit bag to take a swig of water.

Osagie repeated this several times before finally stripping off and being introduced to the spectators.

Television can never convey the noise that such a big crowd makes, but the acoustics in the stadium are such that it's like being at a rock concert - my ears are still ringing.

His arch rival David Rudisha was next to have his name up in lights, and the Kenyan radiated with the confidence that comes with being the fastest 800m runner in the world.

Andrew Franczak was in the stadium to witness one of the greatest 800 metres Olympic finals in history

On your marks, get set, go! With a bang Osagie was off, the only problem was the rest of the field set off like mad march hares - and there was no catching them.

The Harlow runner was at the back, struggling to stay up with the crazy pace. There were no thoughts of 'Where shall I position myself' or 'I hope I don't get boxed in' or even

SOME of Great Britain's top Olympic athletes lined up to praise Andrew Osagie after his superb performance in the 800 metre final at London 2012.

Hailed as the greatest 800m race of all time, Osagie clocked 1 min, 43.77 secs and this has placed him fourth on the all-time best times by GB athletes.

It would have given him the gold medal at the previous three Olympics and was also the fastest ever time by an athlete finishing last of eight in the 800m final at any Games.

Only legends like double Olympic gold medal winner Seb Coe, World Championships silver medalist Steve Cram and Peter Elliott have run faster.

Osagie's time was quicker than his idol Ovett's, whose best time was 1:44.09.

He has a little way to go to beat Cram, who clocked 1:42.88, while Coe's time of 1:41.73 was a world record which stood for nearly 17 years until 1997. Lord Coe said: "If you said to Andrew Osagie 18 months ago 'You will get to an Olympic final and you are going to run 1 min 43 secs', he would have taken that."

"Whether he would have thought he was going to finish last is another thing!"

Cram was also full of praise for world record breaking winner David Rudisha and Osagie. He said: "Simply unbelievable! That's the greatest ever 800m race anyone has ever run, or that I have ever seen. What a privilege to be here. He was all on his own! How do you put that into words?"

"David Rudisha is the Olympic champion. He talked a lot about putting on a show in these Olympics."

"All eight men have either run a season's best or a personal best, including Andrew Osagie. What a race. Incredible. That's a big, big PB for [Osagie]."

Olympic bronze medallist Brendan Foster, commenting on BBC1, said: "Well done Andrew Osagie. It's a phenomenal performance. But Rudisha is the star of the Olympics. He left everyone trailing in his wake."

When asked whether he felt nervous walking out on the track in front of an 80,000 capacity crowd he replied: "I was nervous because it was an opportunity."

"I didn't get the result I wanted but I got a PB, so I took the opportunity."

The rising star of British 800m running put an extremely positive spin on the biggest race of his life.

Gold medal-winning David Rudisha's new world record time of 1:40.91 shaved 0.10 of a second off the Kenyan's own record.

"Wow, that was some race to be a part of," Osagie said. "I would have loved to watch it from the sidelines. I've got so much respect for David Rudisha. There's not many people that can beat him, but I'm so happy to have been part of the Olympics."

"To run a personal best in the Olympic final is unbelievable - in any major championships I would have got a medal with that time. My aim was to run a 1:44 time and hopefully that would have been enough to be up there with them."

"Unfortunately it was only quick enough to keep me at the back of the field."

'Ha ha any other championship. So happy to run a massive PB in an Olympic Final and big well done to my Coach @CoachWinrow' - Osagie

"It's one of those things. Next year I'll come back stronger. This was my first really big international season so it bodes well for the future for me."

"It's a big jump for me to run a PB like that."

Osagie was seen warmly congratulating Rudisha after his phenomenal run. "I just said well done to Rudisha after the race, awesome run. I didn't say anything like 'I'll get you next time!' he said."

"He deserves respect. When we're racing we always want to beat each other but after the race we get on well off the track. It's good to be in the presence of someone who is running so well."

"I'm just so happy to be here and run a time like that. When I look back I'll be quite happy."

Osagie's final words on Rudisha were: "He can be beaten."

Bronze for Brit ace Chloe

CHLOE Rogers, left, earned her place in history as she helped the Team GB women's hockey team lift an Olympics medal for only the second time in the sport's history.

GB's only other medal came with bronze at the Barcelona Olympics in 1992 and Harlow-born Rogers was overjoyed that the hockey team had become part of the London 2012

Games medal success.

Rogers told the Star straight after Friday's bronze medal match win over New Zealand: "I'm absolutely over the moon we've got a medal around our necks and we're coming away from the Olympics with something as promised."

"It's tough to win medals in hockey. It's been a long tournament; it's a hard grind to get into the medal matches. We were still out there running and plugging away to get something.

"It was great to get a medal - I'd have ripped someone's arm off to get it!"

Midfielder Rogers, 27, said: "I was pleased with the way I played today," she said. "I got on the ball more than in previous Games. It's nice

GB ace can't wait for Brazil Olympics after playing part in 'greatest 800m final ever'

KNOWING he would have won a gold medal at any of the last three Olympics with his phenomenally-fast time in the London 2012 800 metres final, has raised Andrew Osagie's prospects of winning a medal at the Games in Rio de Janeiro in four years' time.

Club member made his own little piece of Olympic history as his time of 1:43.77 was the fastest eighth-placed finish ever in the final of this distance.

He is now fourth on the all-time list of GB 800m fastest times, behind Seb Coe, Steve Cram and Peter Elliott - but ahead of his hero Steve Ovett.

He said he was over the moon to have realised his dream, and was looking forward to the Brazil Olympics in 2016.

"It's always been my dream, my ambition as a youngster, even before I started training to run an Olympic final. To do it in my home town is literally unbelievable," he said.

"I'm looking forward to Rio now, I know what I can do in a final now.

"I'll take positives from this Olympics. I like rising to the occasion, stepping up to the pressure."

'Sorry I couldn't get you a gold post box,' - Osagie

ANDREW Osagie was sorry he could not get a gold post box for Harlow after completing the Olympic 800 metres final in a personal best time.

Speaking to the Star straight after last Thursday's race, he said: "I'm sorry I couldn't get a gold post box for Harlow."

The 24-year-old, of Northbrooks in Harlow, clocked 1 minutes 43.77 seconds, trailing home at the rear of the field as ahead of him Kenyan David Rudisha clocked a sensational world record of 1:40.91 to take the gold medal.

Osagie was keen to thank his friends and family for their support.

His parents, Andrew and Katrina, plus brother Lloyd and sister Elisher, all made the journey to Stratford, to watch him in the heat, semi-final and final.

"Thanks so much for the support it's been unbelievable," he said. "Me getting into the final was kind of enough for everyone at home, they said we're so proud of you - even for just getting into the team. All my family and friends from back home were in the crowd. It was a buzz.

"Sorry I couldn't win a medal and get a gold post box back for you in Harlow. But to get a PB in the final I hope all of you back home respect the fact that I've done it and I'm sure they will.

"Thank you to my family for coming to watch me and I hope they enjoyed it. The whole Olympics experience has been unbelievable, I've enjoyed every second of it. The crowds were amazing."
